The Porters Arrive in High Nevada Indians, Geysers, Silver What Is Man?

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

THE great thing about American prosperity is that it spreads power and fortune from the great centers of wealth. In ancient days, a rich nobleman in his palace was surrounded by ignorant, miserable, half-starved barefoot peasants. Later, the owner of a great factory in New England had the "satisfaction" of knowing that his employes were already on the job when the whistle blew at daybreak that and that by so toiling he was helping to make money for him and work for themselves barely enough to keep alive.

• • •

THAT has changed, and will change more. Millions of men go to work in automobiles. And the automobile widens their sphere of labor. A carpenter or bricklayer can work comfortably anywhere within 15 or 20 miles of his dwelling. That change is as important, almost, as the invention of the locomotive.

• • •

THE Diner-Lazarus dinner party is over. Diner still has more than he needs, more than he should have, but Lazarus has plenty, and travels in his little limousine while waiting to rest in Abraham's bosom.

• • •

IT would have interested you to see this Southern Pacific train getting ready to start from Oakland, big California city on the bay, at 6 o'clock last night. Half a dozen well-kept, good automobiles drove up, one after another. A man well dressed, contented prosperous looking, got out of each. His wife, who changed to the wheel to drive the car home, was prosperous looking and proud to take her husband to work. Those were colored porters of the Southern Pacific Pullman cars and their wives.

• • •

WHAT a change from the days of "Uncle Tom's Cabin!" And the change is as great for white workers as it is for colored men. Seventy-five years ago pious New Englanders, excited about "abolition" and the terrible lot of poor black slaves in the south, were told by the late Albert Brisbane: "By all means free the black slaves in the south. But what about white slaves in your own New England factories? What about the white women who go to work in your cotton mills before daylight and get home after dark? Why don't you interest yourselves in that slavery? It is worse than black slavery, because the black slave's owner keeps him fed and healthy that he may continue to live and work, whereas you don't care what happens to your white slaves, since you can get for nothing more when they die."

• • •

SLAVERY can be and has been as bad on a "wage basis" as on a basis of physical slave ownership. Modern industry, highly productive, intensively organized, immensely profitable, takes a step toward civilization when it allows those that do the work and produce the comforts to have some comfort for themselves.

• • •

THOSE colored women, driving their husbands to work in good automobiles, will cause the foolish to ask, "Dear me, what is the world coming to?" It is coming to better days, greater happiness for the crowd and greater security for the few that skim off the cream.

THIS is written on the Southern Pacific "Overland" route going through Nevada. At Carlin, nearly 5,000 feet up in the Nevada mountains, engineer, going east, blows his whistle three times in honor of Uncle Sam's airmail plane going west. It roars over head, sailing in a straight line, 1,000 feet above the snow-covered mountains. Who could have persuaded men that only yesterday traveled slowly westward driving their oxen that such a thing would ever be possible? And now it is done.

• • •

THE train rolls over mountains more than 6,000 feet high, their snow-filled gorges storing water for this "great basin"—all water that falls on Nevada STAYS in Nevada. It is held in the soil or goes into Nevada lakes. The great basin with no outlet to the

69th Congress Paralyzed By One Filibuster and Threatened With Another

SENATE IN ROW, DEFICIENCY BILL PASSAGE HALTED

Democratic-Insurgent Coalition Fighting for Resolution Aiding Reed Probers

BATTLE THROUGH NIGHT

Read of Pennsylvania, Moses Declare They Will Talk Bill to Death

BULLETIN

Washington, Mar. 3—President Coolidge's five appointments to the new federal radio commision will not be confirmed by the present session because of the filibuster against the Reed resolution. it appeared this afternoon.

• • •

Washington, Mar. 3—Paralyzed by one filibuster and threatened with another, the sixty-ninth congress was slowly dying on its feet today with the senate deadlocked over a resolution giving the Reed slush fund committee a new lease of life.

The filibuster strangled all legislative activities throughout an all-night session of the senate and its leaders declared they would continue their battle up until the moment congress finally adjourns at noon Friday.

A never-ceasing flow of uninteresting oratory was staged by the filibustering bloc, led by Senators Reed, Republican, of Pennsylvania, and Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, who declared they would talk the Reed resolution to death.

At 9:30 o'clock the Democratic-Insurgent coalition, fighting for adoption of the Reed resolution, defeated a motion to consider the $93,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill. The vote was 24 to 33.

This bill carried hundreds of important appropriation times, including $35,000,000 for the veterans' bureau hospitalization and rehabilitation programs, $11,500,000 for purchase of the Cape Cod ship canal, $8,000,000 for government loans to farmers to purchase seed, $115,000 for the newly-created radio commission, funds for the government's special oil counsel in the Doheny and Sinclair cases, more than $1,000,000 for naval construction work, including the three new cruisers, and millions for the pay of federal judges, U. S. marshal, federal juries and witnesses in federal cases. Failure to enact the bill, while not sufficient to provoke a special session of congress, would create untold confusion in the government service.

An all-night session, the second within a week, failed to break the filibuster, which was directed toward blocking adoption of the Reed resolution, authorizing new campaign investigations. The sun rose upon an ex-

$1,500,000 FIRE RAGES ON JERSEY WATERFRONT

Six City Blocks Laid Waste, Factories Destroyed, Firemen Overcome

Jersey City, N. J., Mar. 3—A spectacular fire which for a time threatened the entire business section swept over the waterfront today under a dense cloud of black smoke, destroying piers, loaded freight cars, quantities of property, and laving waste six city blocks.

The blaze, believed to have been caused by defective wiring, did damage estimated to be at least $1,500,000 before being brought finally under control. Pier K., where the fire started, was razed, two lumber companies' yards were destroyed, a rubber factory and numerous other buildings burned to the ground, as all available firemen poured tons of water through the clouds of acrid smoke, which for a time even covered lower Manhattan, across the Hudson.

Because of the terrific wind, the flames leaped from building to building. Six firemen were overcome by the smoke. Fireboats from New York aided from the river side. Twenty-eight freight cars, loaded with goods were destroyed in Pier K at an estimated loss of $600,000.

DON'T RIDE ASTRIDE; KING DOESN'T LIKE IT

London, Mar. 3—King George does not like to see British women ride astride. He said so when viewing a hunter show here.

The king doesn't approve of bobbed hair either, but there has been no rush on the part of English women to return to long tresses.

FEAR FOR FLIERS

No Word Received from Uruguayan Aviators Since Early Yesterday

Cadiz, Spain, Mar. 3—Official circles here were beginning to entertain grave fears today for the safety of the Uruguayan fliers, headed by Major Larre-Borges and his collegues who have not been heard from since they hopped off from Casa Blanca, Morocco, at 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning for the Canary Islands. They were attempting a Spain-to-Uruguay flight.

Radio and cable stations attempted throughout the night to communicate with the fliers, without success.

The opinion was expressed that the bird men may have been forced down at some uninhabited spot on the Moroccan or Canary Island coasts.

JURY STILL OUT IN DAUGHERTY, MILLER TRIAL

Twenty-Four and One-Half Hours of Deliberation Fail To Shake Deadlock

New York, Mar. 3—The jury resumed its deliberations at 10:15 o'clock this morning in an effort to reach a verdict in the Daugherty-Miller conspiracy trial.

The jury was still hopelessly deadlocked after 24½ hours of actual deliberations on whether Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, are guilty of the charge of conspiring to defraud the government of "their fair and unbiased services" in connection with the American Metals Co. claim dealing with property seized during the war.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon, when the jury went to lunch, no verdict had been reached.

As an indication that the jurors see a long period of discussion still before them, one of the 12 shortly before they went to lunch passed a note from the jury room asking the guard to telephone his wife and ask her to send him a fresh supply of clothing.

GRAIN MARKETING BODY WINS $3,000,000 AWARD

Armour Concern Accused of Selling Bad Product, Falsifying Records

Chicago, Mar. 3—The Grain Marketing Corporation today won an award of $3,000,000 against the Armour Grain Co., which was accused of selling a warehouse full of rotten grain and falsifying records to cover up the transaction.

Edward E. Brown, banker, appointed arbitrator of the dispute under provisions of Illinois law, today confirmed reports of his verdict but declined to state the amount. The corporation today declared it had been awarded $2,700,000 and $300,000 interest.

The corporation, which collapsed in 1925, was organized to take over the grain elevator properties of the Armour company, Rosenbaum Grain Corporation and other interests. Its properties and assets were listed around $20,000,000.

Frank D. Walsh of counsel for the grain corporation declared today the Armour company turned over what purported to be good grain and then falsified records.

The Armour company denied the charges.

10-POINT DROP

Cities Service Breaks And Curb Market Is Flooded

New York, Mar. 3—The New York curb market suspended trading in Cities Service stock today, after the stock has broken 10 points to 48. Following the announcement of the serious illness of Henry L. Doherty, head of H. L. Doherty & Co., president of City Service Co., and principal market sponsor for the stock, selling orders flooded the market in greater volume than they could be taken care of. Stop-loss orders were also opened up in heavy volume.

BROWN GOOD FARMER, BUT POOR WATCHMAN

Columbus, Mar. 3—Police today were hunting for the bold thief who slipped into the room at the New Southern Hotel here this morning and stole $35 from the trousers' pockets of Rep. Elmer F. Cotton, Lorain County, while Cotton and Rep. John T. Brown, Champaign County were sleeping. Brown has been named Ohio's most typical farmer.

FURIOUS GALES DRIVE COAST SHIPS ASHORE

Havoc Wrought Among Coastwise and Foreign Shipping by Storms

FEAR FOR STEAMER

Most of Casualties in Vicinity of Cape Hatteras; Waves Mountainous High

BULLETIN

New York, Mar. 3—The City of St. Louis, reported in disaster earlier today in the terrific storm sweeping the north Atlantic Coast, is proceeding to New York slowly under her own power, according to a wireless message received here this afternoon by the Ocean Steamship Co., operators of the vessel.

• • •

New York, Mar. 3—Furious gales racing up the Atlantic Coast, from Cape Hatteras northward, today wrought havoc among coastwise and foreign shipping. Radio calls of distress sent coast guard vessels hastily out to sea, bucking mountainous waves, to stand by and give aid to the stricken ships.

The storm's toll this morning was: Two ships driven ashore, one of which was later refloated and put back to sea under its own power; three ships disabled and calling for aid; two United States lightships torn from their moorings and reported floundering helplessly, and two coal barges torn loose from their convoy off Virginia Capes and swept to sea. Each barge carried five men.

Most of the storm's casualties were in the vicinity of Cape Hatteras.

Fear for Steamer

The British freight ship, King David, which left New York Mar. 1 for the South Seas via the Panama Canal, went ashore five miles south by southeast of Cape Henry shortly before midnight, and the captain, fearing his vessel would be pounded to pieces by the heavy seas, sent out S. O. S. signals. Two coast guard cutters put out from Norfolk, Va., to the King David's assistance, but at 1:25 o'clock this morning the Independent Wireless Telegraph Co. here intercepted a message saying the ship had been floated without assistance and was putting out to sea under its own steam.

The coastwise passenger steamer, City of St. Louis, operated by the Savannah Line, bound from Savannah to New York with about 30 passengers, had her steering gear disabled by the storm. She was last reported drifting off Cape Hatteras shoals, with several vessels rushing to her aid.

Two dangerous points off the Virginia coast were left without lights when two lightships were torn from their moorings and swept out to sea. The ships are equipped with power and officials believed they might well ride out the storm.

ONE CENT GASOLINE TAX INCREASE ON HORIZON

Revenue Estimated at Six Million Per Year for Highway Program

Columbus, Mar. 3—Renewed efforts to induce the Ohio legislature to enact legislation increasing the state gasoline tax to three cents during the present session were in evidence today.

It was stated in legislative chambers that a new bill is being drafted, under supervision of house leaders, providing for the one-cent increase and decreeing that this additional revenue, estimated to exceed $6,000,000 a year, shall be used for highway construction and railroad grade crossing elimination as well as for maintenance of roads.

The bill, it was indicated, will be introduced within a few days.

MUNITIONS SEIZED

Government Troops Raid Former City Arsenal at Vienna

Vienna, Mar. 3—Government troops today raided a former city arsenal, which is now a leather factory operated by socialists. The government alleges it seized several truck loads of munitions from the factory.

Tht matter has been put down for parliamentary discussion. The anti-socialists claim the socialists were storing the arms for use in the elections scheduled for April 24.

NOMINATES KIRKPATRICK

Washington, Mar. 3—President Coolidge today sent the following nomination to the senate: U. S. judge for eastern district of Pennsylvania—William H. Kirkpatrick.

TWO MEN HURT IN ACCIDENTS DURING NIGHT

Franklin Robinson, 35, Colored, Caught in Wheels of Moving Train

LOSES BOTH FEET

Webster Bushong, 50, Steel Worker, Suffers Fractured Leg in Fall

Two men are in City Hospital today, one in a very critical condition, following two accidents last night and early this morning.

Franklin Robinson, 35, colored, married and the father of two children, employed as a porter at Hotel Marion, lost both feet shortly before 1 o'clock this morning when he fell beneath an east bound train on the Big Four tracks at the N. State-st crossing. Both legs below the knees were crushed and mangled.

Hospital attendants this afternoon said that he may not recover.

Steel Worker Hurt

Webster Bushong, 50, 487 E. George-st, employed at the plant of the Pollak Steel Co., sustained a fractured right leg shortly after 10 o'clock last night when he slipped and fell while handling steel on a hot bed at the plant. He was taken to the hospital in the C. E. Curtis & Co. ambulance.

Big Four and Erie officials today were checking the N. State-st crossing accident.

Circumstances surrounding the mishap are mysterious. According to the injured man's story to Hotel Ackerman guests, who heard his screams and rushed to his aid, Robinson was enroute to his home on N. State-st from Hotel Marion. In this he is substantiated by employes of Hotel Marion.

Despite the fact that the train was moving east and the man's claims that he attempted to cross the tracks at the crossing he was found lying about 30 feet west of the west side of State-st.

Watchman Gone

It could not be learned late today whether it was an Erie or Big Four freight train under which the man was injured. No watchman was on duty at the crossing at the time, having retired at 12:30 this morning.

Since both the Big Four and Erie lines use the Big Four tracks for east traffic and the Erie for westbound traffic, officials are positive that the train

MEXICAN NOTE CONTENTS SHROUDED WITH SECRECY

Latest Communiation in Reply to Message Sent by State Department

Washington, Mar. 3—A new note from Mexico, replying to one dispatched from Washington 72 hours earlier, was received at the state department today.

Department officials, however, declined to disclose the subject matter of the correspondence, or even to admit that a reply had been received, thus continuing the unusual secrecy that has shrouded moves in the Mexican controversy for some days.

The American note is understood to have been written by Assistant Secretary of State Olds, who has been charged in the senate with being "anti-Mexican."

Reports that the new note presaged a lifting of the embargo on arms to Mexico, thus affording Calles' enemies with the means to start a revolution, were met with silence at the department, as were various other reports concerning the subject matter of the correspondence.

SCHOOLS CLOSED

Eight Hundred Cases of Measles Reported in Zanesville

Zanesville, Mar. 3—Temporary closing of all public schools in Zanesville, due to an epidemic of measles, was recommended to the school board today by Dr. D. J. Evans, city health officer.

Dr. Evans declared that there are more than 800 cases of measles in the city, and suggested the closing of schools as the most effective method of checking the outbreak.

The disease is of a mild form, it is said few of the children being dangerously ill, but its spread throughout the city has been rapid and persistent.

REMOVAL OF GRANT CABIN FAVORABLE TO COMMITTEE

Columbus, Mar. 3—The house military affairs committee today decided to recommend passage of the Vandament bill, authorizing the state director of highways to remove the house in which General U. S. Grant was born from the state fair grounds here to the village of Point Pleasant where it is planned to again place the building on the site where the former President of the United States was born.

ARREST ROBBERY SUSPECT

Cleveland, Mar. 3—Noel Hutchinson, 27, believed by local police to be the robber who posed as a telephone inspector, escaping with approximately $1,000 from three Cleveland banks in February, is now under arrest here today, it was learned.

The dogs have been on exhibit in a Los Angeles street museum. An interesting pose of Balto is shown above.

Bacteria Count in Marion's Milk Supply Lowest Since Inspection Work Started

Report of Dr. John T. Gruber Shows What New Department Has Accomplished Since Its Establishment; Raw Supply Greatly Improved, Claim

Evidence that Marion's milk and meat inspection department has accomplished important and valuable results since it began operating two years ago is found in the February report of the department's head, Dr. J. T. Gruber, showing that tests of the city's milk supply last month are the most satisfactory on record.

The report, read at the March meeting of the City Board of Health, showed that the bacteria count in pasteurized milk tested by Dr. Gruber last month averaged 12,000 per cubic centimeter, the lowest figure recorded for any month since the local inspection bureau began work two years ago.

First Tests

At the beginning, when the first tests were made by Dr. Gruber the bacteria count averaged in some instances considerably more than 100,000. The city's milk and meat inspection code, under which Dr. Gruber's department operates, stipulates that no pasteurized milk containing more than 50,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter shall be marketed. Dr. Gruber's monthly tests have shown that the local milk supply has been well within this limit at all times and that the quality of the product has been steadily improving, finally reaching the unusually low bacteria figure shown in the report for February.

Marked improvement has also been shown in the raw milk supply coming from dairy farms in the district, although the bacteria count last month was higher than recent averages. The count in February as shown by tests was 90,000. The minimum specified by the code is 100,000. Tests of raw milk during months preceding February were considerably below the February showing, Dr. Gruber states.

Lauds Dairymen

This steady and marked improvement in the quality of Marion's milk supply has resulted, Dr. Gruber stated, from close co-operation of the owners of pasteurizing plants and operators of dairy farms with the local inspection department. Regulations and requirements of the city code have been fully complied with, Dr. Gruber states.

During January and February, the department head reported, he made 198 inspections at dairy farms. There are 1,046 cows on the farms visited during the two months and the inspections showed that the daily production of milk sent to the local market from these farms averaged 2,438 gallons. This production could be doubled, Dr. Gruber said, if all of the 1,046 cows were entirely dairy stock. The city inspector says that only about 20 per cent of the cows in the district under his supervision are bred for dairy purposes.

Twenty-seven per cent of the 1,046 cows included in last month's inspections have been tuberculin tested, the report showed.

BILL PUTS DRY AGENTS UNDER CIVIL SERVICE

Only Another Filibuster Can Now Defeat New Reorganization Measure

Washington, Mar. 3—Out of the maelstrom of the senate's bedeviling eleventh-hour legislative psychosis the drys emerged today with a civil service prohibition unit—fished out of the parliamentary chaos by a 71-to-6 vote with the standard cloture hook.

Only another filibuster can now defeat the measure, which already has the approval of both houses. If the wets have given up the ghost, as was indicated by the final senate vote last night, the remaining legislative action will be merely a matter of formality during the last hours of the session before Friday noon.

The Anti-Saloon League regards the victory as the most important step in the direction of effective prohibition since the enactment of the Volstead Act.

The new reorganization law, which may become effective Apr. 1, establishes in the treasury department a semi-independent prohibition commissioner, under whom all enforcement employes shall be under the civil service code—engaged through competitive examinations and shielded from political pressure by a statutory appeal against dismissal from the service.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL, 14, SUICIDE AT CLEVELAND

Cleveland, Mar. 3—Helen Roach, 14, high school girl, is dead here today, a suicide. The girl shot herself with a revolver last night and died shortly after being removed to a hospital. So far, no motive has been determined for the girl's act.

SLIDE BLOCKS ROAD

PATROLMAN IS CHARGED WITH COMPLICITY

Indictment Follows Testimony Given Grand Jury by Mrs. Florence Mellett

STREITENBERGER NAMED

Stark County Probers Delve Deeper into Slaying of Publisher

Canton, Mar. 3—Floyd Streitenberger, Canton police officer, was today indicted by the Stark County Grand Jury, charged with complicity in the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, July 16, 1926.

The indictment followed testimony given to the grand jury by Mrs. Florence Mellett, widow of the slain newspaperman, Ora Slater, Cincinnati detective and others.

The jury devoted considerable time during its session to investigating new angles in the case and had a quantity of strong evidence in its possession according to rumors spread before the report was announced this afternoon.

Movement for additional indictments in the case was an outgrowth, it was said, of information furnished officials by Patrick Eugene McDermott, immediately following his capture at Natty Glo, Pa., several months ago. McDermott is now serving a life sentence at the Ohio Penitentiary.

Ben Rudner, second man to be convicted in the conspiracy, was also sentenced to life imprisonment and is now serving time.

Louis Major, Canton, third man indicted for the shooting, is scheduled to go on trial for his life Mar. 10. Indictment of the police officer may alter this plan, however.

DEATHS OF FIVE BABIES BRINGS SEARCHING PROBE

Commissioner Believes Nurse Administered Boric Acid for Drinking Water

Chicago, Mar. 3—The deaths of five girl babies, all less than 15 days old, who died in convulsions at Columbus Memorial Hospital here after being administered to by a nurse, was the subject of a searching investigation today.

The tragedy occurred early yesterday it was learned, but was not reported until last night when Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen was notified. After a brief investigation, Dr. Bundesen stated his belief that a nurse had mistaken boric acid for drinking water in administering to the infants.

The babies, ranging in age from three to 14 days, all died within a few hours. Hurried funerals were given four of them yesterday, it was said, before Dr. Bundesen began his investigation.

When Coroner Oscar Wolff was notified he issued orders to stop the funeral of the fifth victim. He called for an inquest this afternoon. He announced post-mortems would be held and an effort made to determine which of five nurses made the fatal mistake.

Soon after the tragedy had been made public, hospital authorities issued the following statement:

"After a conference with Commissioner Bundesen and a most careful investigation of the records, we can only conclude that probably a solution of boric acid in the drinking water given the five children caused the deaths. We are making every effort to verify this."

USE STRONG MAGNET TO TAKE STEEL FROM EYE

L. E. Hurst, 47, Steam Shovel Craneman, in City Hospital After Accident

L. E. Hurst, 47, of 259 Edwards-st, craneman at the Marion Steam Shovel Co. is in City Hospital today suffering from an injured eye which he sustained Saturday when a piece of steel flew from the metal he was chipping and lodged in his eyeball.

He was removed from the Shovel emergency hospital to Grant Hospital, Columbus, where, with the aid of a giant steel magnet the particle was removed. He was later removed to City Hospital where today his condition is reported slightly improved. It is thought that it will not be necessary to remove the eye, attending physicians state.

Senate Caught in Worst Legislative Jam in Years

69TH CONGRESS STAGGERS TO DEATH TODAY

Continuous 48-Hour Session Until Adjournment Faced; Legislators Almost Helpless

Washington, Mar. 2—With but 48 hours of life remaining, the dying sixty-ninth congress staggered toward its death today, almost helpless against filibustering blocs but with the senate facing a continuous session up until the hour of adjournment at noon Friday.

This continuous 48 hour session of the senate, unprecedented in the last decade, was planned by a coalition of Democratic and Insurgent leaders in order to smash an administration filibuster against a resolution, extending the investigating powers of the Reed campaign fund committee throughout the duration of the next congress. A small group of administration senators, led by Reed, Republican, of Pennsylvania, and Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, fought this resolution, it was said, in the belief that further campaign investigations would only furnish the Democrats with political fireworks for the 1928 presidential race.

Crippled by Filibuster

The legislative functions of congress were crippled by this filibuster, because in retaliation the Democrats and Insurgents refused to permit action on any other controversial matters, with the sole exception of the Anderson prohibition reorganization bill, which was protected by cloture against all filibusters.

"I shall favor a continuous session until the hour of adjournment if the Reed Resolution is not adopted before that," said Senator Robinson, Democrat, of Arkansas, minority leader. "At least we will keep the senate in session throughout tonight."

Because of the filibuster virtually every bill having come here from the talk it to death the senate was caught in the worst legislative jam in many years. Some of the important matters facing disposition were the confirmation of Senator Arthur R. Gould Republican, of Maine; the creation of a court, Insull, Chicago utilities magnate, Daniel F. Schuyler, Los Angeles, and Thomas W. Cunningham, Philadelphia, court clerk, for contempt; action on President Coolidge's veto of the farm relief bill; the Borah resolution giving the senate foreign relations committee power to investigate Latin-American affairs during the recess; the LaFollette resolution protesting against a third term for President Coolidge, and the Walsh resolution proposing an investigation of all electric power companies.

In the house, there was less confusion but its efforts at enacting legislation were futile because of the senate deadlock.

The fight against extending the powers of the Reed committee was the key log of the legislative jam. It was led by Reed and Moses. The former contended that the resolution would permit only a partial recount of the ballots cast in the last Pennsylvania senatorial election and would give the Reed committee carte blanche authority to conduct investigations this coming summer.

Reed, Pennsylvania, sponsored a series of amendments calculated to drive Democratic senators into opposing the resolution. Two amendments would call for investigations in southern states wherever charges were made that negroes had been disenfranchised in the last senatorial elections. If adopted, these amendments would cause defeat of the resolution.

Reed and Moses, however, were unwilling to permit a vote and as a result, the senate faced a complete dead lock in all its activities until after the dry bill has been enacted. Then, a legislative scramble will follow until Vice President Dawes bangs his gavel at noon Friday, sending the sixty ninth congress to its grave.

Marion Overland Co. Shows Advanced Spring Styles

With four new lines of cars on its display floors, the Marion Overland Co. Thursday starts a three-day advance spring showing of automobiles which it has been preparing for the last two months. Twenty cars in 11 new body styles are to be shown in the elaborate display according to M. L. McDaniels, manager of the Marion Overland Co. The entire line of the Willys Overland Co. is new this year. The Willys Knight Great Six is shown in new body styles which include a four-some model. The "70" model Willys Knight six, which was first introduced last year, has been improved in many respects, with a longer body and more graceful lines than last season. An entirely new line of Whippet sixes has been produced. These cover all the range of models and will be shown complete. The Whippet fours, which were announced last year, are shown again and in many new models. The complete display will include sport roadsters, cabriolets, coupes, coaches, sedans, landaus and, in short, all the desired types of motor cars. The total showing is valued at over $25,000.

To provide entertainment for the crowd, aside from the display of cars, Wheeler's Ozark Royal Entertainers have been engaged. Practically the entire first floor of the garage will be given over to the new car display. This will include the large rear floor space which is normally given over to used cars.

The Marion Overland Co. is housed in one of the most modern garages in Marion County. It is located at 309 W. Center st. and was opened formally last October. The advance spring showing will open at 8 o'clock Thursday morning and will continue until 10 p. m. each day, including Saturday.

WET CAUSE IN CONGRESS FACES UNCERTAIN FUTURE

"Dripping" and "Moist" Groups Engage in Verbal Wrangling

Washington, Mar. 2—The wet cause in congress faced a decidedly uncertain future today.

With senate wets wrangling among themselves, anti-prohibitionists in the house planned to meet tomorrow to elect a leader for the 70th congress. Members appeared to be sharply divided upon their future course of action.

The "dripping" wets, opposing all prohibition and enforcement as well, were ranged on the one hand against the "moist" members who stand for enforcement "until modification will bring light wines and beer."

The specter of the 1928 presidential campaign entered the scene in the senate feud, while threatened to envelop the whole wet side of the upper house.

With Senator Bruce, Democrat, of Maryland charging that presidential aspirations had shaded the views of some wet senators, he himself was charged by Senator Copeland, Democrat, of New York, with hurting the cause by "fanatical" demands.

House anti-prohibitionists, divided upon many occasions during the present session, were confident that they can get together to strike as a unit when the time is ripe. They have already indorsed the New York state referendum plan of polling public sentiment.

LYCEUM COURSE

Joseph Crowell, Impersonator, To Appear at Pleasant Township School

Joseph Crowell, Boston, Mass., an impersonator of note, will appear in the auditorium of the Pleasant Township Centralized school Thursday night as the final number of the high school lyceum course.

Mr. Crowell is reputed to be very successful as an entertainer. One feature of his program is his lightning changes of costume and make-up carried on in full view of the audience.

The high school glee clubs are scheduled to open the program with a half-hour's concert starting at 7:45 o'clock.

JOHN ERWIN ON TRIAL TODAY FOR THEFT OF GUN

State Practically Completes Case Against Youth, Clerk's Fees $489

John Erwin, [illegible] weeks ago with his brother, Arnold Erwin, 20, on charges of burglary in connection with the theft of a gun from the residence of Robert C. Hoover, 41, Marg st, went on trial before Marion County Common Pleas Court.

Appearing at the trial as witnesses for the state were Malcolm Luther and George Kessling, both young men terminate sentences in the Mansfield Reformatory, on burglary charges. These two youths were brought to Marion by an officer of that institution to appear in court here.

Others appearing as witnesses for the state included Chief of Police James W. Thompson, Patrolman Ira Schreck, Albert W. McCully and Howard Andrews and Harry J. Mantz.

The state had practically completed the introduction of its testimony when noon recess was declared. It is expected that the trial will end tomorrow.

Clerk's Fees $489.99

February was an exceptionally busy month in the office of County Clerk Harley E. Koons, according to a report compiled today by Deputy Clerk M. L. Wilson.

Clerk's fees during the month totaled $489.99 as compared to the sum of $396.41 taken in during the corresponding period a year ago. County fees totaled $23.76 as compared to the collection of $3.35 last year.

There were 49 actions filed during the month as compared to 70 during the similar period the year before. Bills of sale filed during the month totaled 637 as compared to 695 the year before.

Appointments Made

The following appointments were announce today from the Marion County Probate Court:

Edith Anderson, administratrix of the estate of Katie Sheetz.

Harley H. Klinefelter and Omer Klinefelter, administrators of the estate of Joseph Klinefelter.

Asks Divorce

Charging gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty and reciting instances to substantiate her accusations, Mrs. Myrtle M. Aldrich today filed suit for divorce from Shiloh Landing Aldrich.

According to the charges in the petition Mr. Aldrich drank to excess, failed to support her, cursed her and finally on Oct. 16, 1923, deserted her. She claims that he has not contributed anything to her support since their separation.

Seeks Correction of Error

Correction of an error in the description of the location of a tract of land and a court order to sell the real estate described in the action to discharge a debt and pay for the cost of administering the estate are sought in the petition filed in Common Pleas Court today by D. J. Hill administrator of the estate of Alexander Hill against Ray Hill and others.

According to the petition there is an indebtedness against the estate amounting to approximately $2,000 and the cost of administering are placed at $500. The petition further sets forth that the late Alexander Hill's personal property is of a a value not exceeding $1,087.

The 40-acre tract of land mentioned in the petition, the plaintiff charges, was obtained from the late Alexander Hill from Hiram and Minerva Foos on April 3, 1903 and that it was not correctly described as to location when the deed of transfer was filed.

REPORT 30 DEATHS

Mexican Rebels Make Two Raids Short Distance from Mexico City

Mexico City, Mar. 2—Two raids by rebels, within a few miles of Mexico City, were reported to the war department today. Thirty deaths have been reported.

An early morning raid was made on the village of Santa Rosa and the rebels were driven off after a hurried call had been made for aid from federal troops.

Five federals were killed while defending a power and light sub-station on the outskirts of Mexico City. The rebels were eventually driven off and federal troops are in pursuit.

Twenty-five rebels have been killed in scattered raids in various parts of the country.

BELIEVE ARRESTS SOLVE WEARING APPAREL THEFTS

Cincinnati, Mar. 2—Police here today believed they had broken a ring of "wearing apparel thieves" operating in several large cities with the arrest of three New York men late Tuesday.

Murray Kay, 27, New York City; Samuel Druskin, 24, Brooklyn, and Moe Seigerman, 42, New York, were being held today in connection with the recovery of more than $2,000 worth of loot, in silk dresses and expensive tapestries, late yesterday.

Much of the goods had been bundled and prepared for shipment to a New York address, it was said.

SUBWAYS ARE "TERRIBLE," SAYS AIMEE AFTER RIDE

New York, Mar. 2—What chance has the poor little working girl against the hordes of subway mashers? This was the question of Aimee Semple McPherson, Los Angeles revivalist, after an inspection tour of New York's underground railroads during the rush periods.

"Subways are the masters' playgrounds. Girls must go through hell to get to work and home. There should be separate cars for men and women."

Urbana, with a report of $3,000, Kenton with $1,000, Forest Lawn Presbyterian Church, Marion, $600, and Harpster, which has reported $50, made their final reports last night.

No Reports

No reports have been made by Delaware, Ostrander, Chesterville, Upper Sandusky, Bucyrus, West Liberty, Berlin, West Berlin and Kingston.

Judge R. J. Cameron, of Marysville, committee chairman, who presided, gave a short speech of appreciation for the efforts made by officials of the Marion Presbytery and Sidney Butler, who directed the business of the campaign. Mr. Butler responded. W. N. Harder of Marion and G. Louie Wren of Bellefontaine expressed their views on the success of the plan, after which a vote of thanks was taken in appreciation of Mr. Butler's efforts. Rev. R. L. Lowe, pastor of the LaRue and Marseilles Presbyterian Churches, offered the closing and Rev. C. M. Wyse, pastor of the Iberia Presbyterian Church, pronounced the benediction. The singing of "America" in unison, opened the meeting. Covers were placed for 30 at the dinner table.

SPECIAL WORK PLANNED AT PLEASANT SCHOOL

Harness Oiling and Soldering To Be Done by Vocational Agricultural Students

As a convenience to farmers in the community special programs have been arranged by the Vocational Agricultural Department of the Pleasant Township School under the direction of V. R. Dent.

Harness oiling week will be observed by the department of the school beginning March 7. This department owns an oiling apparatus which is used annually by the classes. Small charges are made for the work which is done by the students in the shop room under the direction of the instructor. It is expected that between 20 and 30 gallons of harness oil will be used in this work.

Soldering week will be observed from March 14 to 19. During this week students will solder utensils, pans, buckets and other articles. A nominal fee will be charged for the work to defray the cost of the solder and material used. These operations will be in charge of the farm shop class.

The department is also planning to test seed corn this year. All corn will be tested in the department's tester. Officials of the school are expecting to receive corn for testing about March 15.

Expect Senate to Pass $200,000 Bill to Fight Borer

WINS APPROVAL OF OHIO HOUSE IN EMERGENCY

Efforts Made to Comply With Requests of U. S. Agricultural Authorities

Columbus, Mar. 3—The Ohio senate this afternoon was expected to concur in the action of the house which passed, by a vote of 129 to 1, the Hamilton bill appropriating $200,000 of state funds for fighting the European corn borer in Ohio and providing for regulatory measures approved by officials of the federal department of agriculture.

Immediately after passing the house late Wednesday as an emergency measure, the bill was messaged over to the senate where, under suspension of the rules, it was given first and second reading and referred to the senate committee on agriculture. The committee is expected to report the bill out favorably in time for calling it up on a question of passage during the session this afternoon.

Every effort is being made by supporters of the measure to comply with the request of U. S. agricultural authorities that the provisions of the Hamilton bill become effective by Mar. 10.

House Passes Bill

The senate today will be asked to concur in the action of the house which, late Wednesday, accepted a number of minor, "clarifying" amendments and then passed, 71 to 33, the Hazard-Marshall bill, appropriating $112,000 for establishment of a department of education, for the training of teachers, at Wilmington College, Clinton County. Upon favorable action by the senate, the bill will go to Governor Donahey.

Three bills were defeated in the house late Wednesday as follows:

By Mr Van Wye Cincinnati, seeking to appropriate a sum nearly $112,000 as state aid for training teachers in municipal universities, colleges of education, at Cincinnati, Toledo and Akron; vote, 47 to 83. Sixty-nine affirmative votes necessary to pass the measure. Motion to reconsider the vote may be made today.

By Rep J. E. Frederick Stark County providing that no county policy shall be incontestable after it has been in force two years. Vote 53 to 107.

By Rep H S Kelser Clark County providing that only 10 per cent of a person's wages for the last 30 days can be legally garnisheed. Vote 52 to 75.

The house passed the Ring Bill authorizing the Sandusky Bridge Co. to construct and operate a bridge across Sandusky Bay, and the Johnson Bill providing that every county officer shall give bond, signed by a surety or security company, or by three freeholders owning real estate within the value of the bond.

Confirms Appointments

Without an opposing vote, the senate confirmed Gov. Vic Donahey's appointment of A. T. Hindermeyer, Cleveland, and Ralph Kinsley, Ravenna, as members of the state board of pharmacy; Norman Sellhamer, New Philadelphia, member board of trustees Kent Normal School, and Harry I. Schenck, Dayton, member state board of building standards.

Unanimously, the senate passed the Brown Bill, subjecting benzol and other motor vehicle fuels to the state gasoline tax; the Dearmond-Comings bill, permitting county commissioners to parole prisoners from their county, imprisoned in the workhouse of another county, on recommendation of the prosecuting attorney, and the Stone Nickels Bill, permitting township and school districts to lease their lands for gas and oil well drilling.

The Dearmond-Comings bill goes to the house. The other measures go to the governor after the house concurs in some minor senate amendments.

The Brown Bill, it is estimated, will add approximately $500 daily to the state gasoline tax receipts.

PEDDLING PERMIT CASE IS SETTLED BY COURT

Subscription Solicitors for Publications Outside Ohio Exempt from License Fee

Agents soliciting subscriptions for magazines or other periodicals published outside the state of Ohio can not be required to obtain a city peddling permit, the local municipal legal department decided in a Municipal Court case here today.

This ruling was handed down after charges had been filed against Russel Douglas, 18, of 189 Pearl st, for peddling without a permit. Douglas has been employed as a subscription solicitor here by a Chicago magazine agency.

Agents representing magazines published outside the state of Ohio are engaged in interstate traffic and therefore are subject solely to federal control and regulations, local officials decided.

It was decided, however, that all peddlers or solicitors regardless of whether their wares are produced in Ohio or some other state must register at the local City Clerk's office which calls for the payment of a 25 cent registration fee.

Douglas complied with this requirement and was permitted to resume his soliciting.

LOCAL W. C. T. U. INDORSES CIGARET AD MEASURE

It was voted to federate with the Anti Cigaret Alliance of Ohio in the campaign to protect youths from cigarets by education and legislation, at the meeting of members of the Anna Gordon W. C. T. It also was voted to indorse the passage of House Bill No 232, urging the protection of youth from cigarets by prohibiting advertising.

"Legislation" was the study topic for the program hour which opened with a paper, "Twelve Steps from a Bill to a Law," given by Mrs. May Halderman. Mrs Virginia Rutherford contributed a reading, "My Clothespin Doll." During a brief business meeting Mrs. E. R. Rutherford and Mrs. W. W. Wilson were enrolled as new members. Mrs Frank Berry and Mrs J. Moore were guests. Refreshments were served during the social hour. Members of the executive board will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. May Halderman, 368 Girard-av. The next regular meeting of the organization will be April 13. The program will be on the subject, "Good Citizenship," and will be in charge of Mrs. May Halderman.

yes-Everyone says "Nothing like it in the World"

In appearance and value, as well as performance, Hudson is the most talked of car of the year. Everyone is saying there is "nothing like it in the world".

At the automobile shows, in dealers' salesrooms, and wherever automobiles are talked about, the release of the Super-Six principle to full capacity is of outstanding interest.

The Super-Six has the smoothness of an electric motor. Four years' development led to full release of its capacity in power, stamina and safety. It led to a new chassis capable of safely using the wide range and long life of the motor. New driving delights resulted. From the effortless smoothness with which the Super-Six whisks you into motion, to the carefree way in which you may make any trip from a journey down-town to a run across the continent, there remains throughout the zest of driving that is possible only to its elastic and smooth flow of power.

Your Hudson Super-Six never extends itself. It always has reserve power for the approaching hill or for greater speed. And its four-wheel brakes with the flexibility of the motor permit a flashing nimbleness you will like. The joy of driving is not dulled through weariness. You set your speed with full knowledge that you may go faster if need be or may stop suddenly with perfect ease and safety. There is restful security in the way the Hudson Super-Six clings to the road, and in the ease and quietness of its action.

And there is a car in its seven new body types that meets any desire for beauty, comfort and luxury.

Half a dozen well-kept, [illegible] automobiles drove up, one after [illegible] other. A man well dressed, contented prosperous looking got out of each. His wife, who changed to the wheel to drive the car home, was prosperous looking and proud to take her husband to work. Those were colored porters of the Southern Pacific Pullman cars and their wives.

WHAT a change from the days of "Uncle Tom's Cabin!" And the change is as great for white workers as it is for colored men. Seventy-five years ago pious New Englanders excited about "abolition" and the terrible lot of poor black slaves in the South, were told by the late Albert Brisbane: "By all means free the black slaves in the south. But what about white slaves in your own New England factories? What about the white women who go to work in your cotton mills before daylight and get home after dark? Why don't you interest yourselves in that slavery? It is worse than black slavery, because the black slave's owner keeps him fed and healthy that he may continue to live and work, whereas you don't care what happens to your white slaves since you can get [illegible] nothing more when they die."

• • •

SLAVERY can be and has been as bad on a "wage basis" as on a basis of personal slave ownership. Modern industry, highly productive, intensively organized, immensely profitable, takes a step toward civilization when it allows those that do the work and produce the comforts to have some comfort for themselves.

69th Congress Paralyzed By One Filibuster and Threatened With Another

SENATE IN ROW, DEFICIENCY BILL PASSAGE HALTED

Democratic-Insurgent Coalition Fighting for Resolution Aiding Reed Probers

BATTLE THROUGH NIGHT

Read of Pennsylvania, Moses Declare They Will Talk Bill to Death

BULLETIN

Washington, Mar. 3—President Coolidge's five appointments to the new federal radio commision will not be confirmed by the present session because of the filibuster against the Reed resolution, it appeared this afternoon.

• • •

Washington, Mar. 3—Paralyzed by one filibuster and threatened with another, the sixty-ninth congress was slowly dying on its feet today with the senate deadlocked over a resolution giving the Reed slush fund committee a new lease of life.

The filibuster strangled all legislative activities throughout an all-night session of the senate and its leaders declared they would continue their battle up until the moment congress finally adjourns at noon Friday.

A never-ceasing flow of uninteresting oratory was staged by the filibustering bloc, led by Senators Reed, Republican, of Pennsylvania, and Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, who declared they would talk the Reed resolution to death.

At 9:30 o'clock the Democratic-Insurgent coalition, fighting for adoption of the Reed resolution, defeated a motion to consider the $93,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill. The vote was 24 to 33.

This bill carried hundreds of important appropriation items, including $35,000,000 for the veterans' bureau hospitalization and rehabilitation programs, $11,500,000 for purchase of the Cape Cod ship canal, $8,690,000 for government loans to farmers to purchase seed, $115,000 for the newly-created radio commission, funds for the government's special oil counsel in the Doheny and Sinclair cases, more than $1,000,000 for naval construction work, including the three new cruisers, and millions for the pay of federal judges, U. S. marshal, federal juries and witnesses in federal cases. Failure to enact the bill, while not sufficient to provoke a special session of congress, would create untold confusion in the government service.

An all-night session, the second within a week, failed to break the filibuster, which was directed toward blocking adoption of the Reed resolution, authorizing new campaign investigations. The sun rose upon an ex-

$1,500,000 FIRE RAGES ON JERSEY WATERFRONT

Six City Blocks Laid Waste, Factories Destroyed, Firemen Overcome

Jersey City, N. J., Mar. 3—A spectacular fire which for a time threatened the entire business section swept over the waterfront today under a dense cloud of black smoke, destroying piers, loaded freight cars, quantities of property, and laying waste six city blocks.

The blaze, believed to have been caused by defective wiring, did damage estimated to be at least $1,500,000 before being brought finally under control. Pier K, where the fire started, was razed, two lumber companies' yards were destroyed, a rubber factory and numerous other buildings burned to the ground as all available firemen poured tons of water through the clouds of acrid smoke, which for a time even covered lower Manhattan, across the Hudson.

Because of the terrific wind, the flames leaped from building to building. Six firemen were overcome by the smoke. Fireboats from New York aided from the river side. Twenty-eight freight cars, loaded with goods were destroyed in Pier K at an estimated loss of $600,000.

DON'T RIDE ASTRIDE; KING DOESN'T LIKE IT

London, Mar. 3—King George does not like to see British women ride astride. He said so when viewing a hunter show here.

The king doesn't approve of bobbed hair either, but there has been no rush on the part of English women to return to long tresses.

FEAR FOR FLIERS

No Word Received from Uruguayan Aviators Since Early Yesterday

Cadiz, Spain, Mar. 3—Official circles here were beginning to entertain grave fears today for the safety of the Uruguayan fliers, headed by Major Larre-Borges and his colleagues who have not been heard from since they hopped off from Casa Blanca, Morocco, at 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning for the Canary Islands. They were attempting a Spain-to-Uruguay flight.

Radio and cable stations attempted throughout the night to communicate with the fliers, without success.

The opinion was expressed that the bird men may have been forced down at some uninhabited spot on the Moroccan or Canary Island coasts.

JURY STILL OUT IN DAUGHERTY, MILLER TRIAL

Twenty-Four and One-Half Hours of Deliberation Fail To Shake Deadlock

New York, Mar. 3—The jury resumed its deliberations at 10:15 o'clock this morning in an effort to reach a verdict in the Daugherty-Miller conspiracy trial.

The jury was still hopelessly deadlocked after 24½ hours of actual deliberations on whether Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, are guilty of the charge of conspiring to defraud the government of "their fair and unbiased services" in connection with the American Metals Co. claim dealing with property seized during the war.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon, when the jury went to lunch, no verdict had been reached.

As an indication that the jurors see a long period of discussion still before them, one of the 12 shortly before they went to lunch passed a note from the jury room asking the guard to telephone his wife and ask her to send him a fresh supply of clothing.

GRAIN MARKETING BODY WINS $3,000,000 AWARD

Armour Concern Accused of Selling Bad Product, Falsifying Records

Chicago, Mar. 3—The Grain Marketing Corporation today won an award of $3,000,000 against the Armour Grain Co., which was accused of selling a warehouse full of rotten grain and falsifying records to cover up the transaction.

Edward E. Brown, banker, appointed arbitrator of the dispute under provisions of Illinois law, today confirmed reports of his verdict but declined to state the amount. The corporation today declared it had been awarded $2,700,000 and $300,000 interest.

The corporation, which collapsed in 1925, was organized to take over the grain elevator properties of the Armour company, Rosenbaum Grain Corporation and other interests. Its properties and assets were listed around $20,000,000.

Frank D. Walsh of counsel for the grain corporation declared today the Armour company turned over what purported to be good grain and then falsified records.

The Armour company denied the charges.

10-POINT DROP

Cities Service Breaks And Curb Market Is Flooded

New York, Mar. 3—The New York curb market suspended trading in Cities Service stock today, after the stock has broken 10 points to 48. Following the announcement of the serious illness of Henry L. Doherty, head of H. L. Doherty & Co., president of City Service Co., and principal market sponsor for the stock, selling orders flooded the market in greater volume than they could be taken care of. Stop-loss orders were also opened up in heavy volume.

Columbus, Mar. 3—Police today were hunting for the bold thief who slipped into the room at the New Southern Hotel here this morning and stole $35 from the trousers' pockets of Rep. Elmer F. Cotton, Lorain County, while Cotton and Rep. John T. Brown, Champaign County were sleeping. Brown has been named Ohio's most typical farmer.

FURIOUS GALES DRIVE COAST SHIPS ASHORE

Havoc Wrought Among Coastwise and Foreign Shipping by Storms

FEAR FOR STEAMER

Most of Casualties in Vicinity of Cape Hatteras; Waves Mountainous High

BULLETIN

New York, Mar. 3—The City of St. Louis, reported in disaster earlier today in the terrific storm sweeping the north Atlantic Coast, is proceeding to New York slowly under her own power, according to a wireless message received here this afternoon by the Ocean Steamship Co., operators of the vessel.

• • •

New York, Mar. 3—Furious gales freeing up the Atlantic Coast, from Cape Hatteras northward, today wrought havoc among coastwise and foreign shipping. Radio calls of distress sent coast guard vessels hastily out to sea, bucking mountainous waves, to stand by and give aid to the stricken ships.

The storm's toll this morning was: Two ships driven ashore, one of which was later refloated and put back to sea under its own power; three ships disabled and calling for aid; two United States lightships torn from their moorings and reported floundering helplessly, and two coal barges torn loose from their convoy off Virginia Capes and swept to sea. Each barge carried five men.

Most of the storm's casualties were in the vicinity of Cape Hatteras.

Fear for Steamer

The British freight ship, King David, which left New York Mar. 1 for the South Seas via the Panama Canal, went ashore five miles south by southeast of Cape Henry shortly before midnight, and the captain, fearing his vessel would be pounded to pieces by the heavy seas, sent out S. O. S. signals. Two coast guard cutters put out from Norfolk, Va., to the King David's assistance, but at 1:25 o'clock this morning the Independent Wireless Telegraph Co. here intercepted a message saying the ship had been floated without assistance and was putting out to sea under its own steam.

The coastwise passenger steamer, City of St. Louis, operated by the Savannah Line, bound from Savannah to New York with about 30 passengers, had her steering gear disabled by the storm. She was last reported drifting off Cape Hatteras shoals, with several vessels rushing to her aid.

Two dangerous points off the Virginia coast were left without lights when two lightships were torn from their moorings and swept out to sea. The ships are equipped with power and officials believed they might well ride out the storm.

ONE CENT GASOLINE TAX INCREASE ON HORIZON

Revenue Estimated at Six Million Per Year for Highway Program

Columbus, Mar. 3—Renewed efforts to induce the Ohio legislature to enact legislation increasing the state gasoline tax to three cents during the present session were in evidence today.

It was stated in legislative chambers that a new bill is being drafted, under supervision of house leaders, providing for the one cent increase and decreeing that this additional revenue, estimated to exceed $6,000,000 a year, shall be used for highway construction and railroad grade crossing elimination as well as for maintenance of roads.

The bill, it was indicated, will be introduced within a few days.

MUNITIONS SEIZED

Government Troops Raid Former City Arsenal at Vienna

Vienna, Mar. 3—Government troops today raided a former city arsenal, which is now a leather factory operated by socialists. The government alleges it seized several truck loads of munitions from the factory.

The matter has been put down for parliamentary discussion. The anti-socialists claim the socialists were storing the arms for use in the elections scheduled for April 24.

NOMINATES KIRKPATRICK

Washington, Mar. 3—President Coolidge today sent the following nomination to the senate: U. S. judge for the eastern district of Pennsylvania—William H. Kirkpatrick.

TWO MEN HURT IN ACCIDENTS DURING NIGHT

Franklin Robinson, 35, Colored, Caught in Wheels of Moving Train

LOSES BOTH FEET

Webster Bushong, 50, Steel Worker, Suffers Fractured Leg in Fall

Two men are in City Hospital today, one in a very critical condition, following two accidents last night and early this morning.

Franklin Robinson, 35, colored, married and the father of two children, employed as a porter at Hotel Marion, lost both feet shortly before 1 o'clock this morning when he fell beneath an east bound train on the Big Four tracks at the N. State-st crossing. Both legs below the knees were crushed and mangled.

Hospital attendants this afternoon said that he may not recover.

Steel Worker Hurt

Webster Bushong, 50, 487 E. George st, employed at the plant of the Pollak Steel Co., sustained a fractured right leg shortly after 10 o'clock last night when he slipped and fell while handling steel on a hot bed at the plant. He was taken to the hospital in the C. E. Curtis & Co. ambulance.

Big Four and Erie officials today were checking the N. State-st crossing accident.

Circumstances surrounding the mishap are mysterious. According to the injured man's story to Hotel Ackerman guests, who heard his screams and rushed to his aid, Robinson was enroute to his home on N. State-st from Hotel Marion. In this he is substantiated by employes of Hotel Marion.

Despite the fact that the train was moving east and the man's claims that he attempted to cross the tracks at the crossing he was found lying about 30 feet west of the west side of State-st.

Watchman Gone

It could not be learned late today whether it was an Erie or Big Four freight train under which the man was injured. No watchman was on duty at the crossing at the time, having retired at 12:30 this morning.

Since both the Big Four and Erie lines use the Big Four tracks for east traffic and the Erie for westbound traffic, officials are positive that the train

MEXICAN NOTE CONTENTS SHROUDED WITH SECRECY

Latest Communiation in Reply to Message Sent by State Department

Washington, Mar. 3—A new note from Mexico, replying to one dispatched from Washington 72 hours earlier, was received at the state department today.

Department officials, however, declined to disclose the subject matter of the correspondence, or even to admit that a reply had been received, thus continuing the unusual secrecy that has shrouded moves in the Mexican controversy for some days.

The American note is understood to have been written by Assistant Secretary of State Olds, who has been charged in the senate with being "anti-Mexican."

Reports that the new note presages a lifting of the embargo on arms to Mexico, thus affording Calles' enemies with the means to start a revolution, were met with silence at the department, as were various other reports concerning the subject matter of the correspondence.

SCHOOLS CLOSED

Eight Hundred Cases of Measles Reported in Zanesville

Zanesville, Mar. 3—Temporary closing of all public schools in Zanesville, due to an epidemic of measles, was recommended to the school board today by Dr. D. J. Evans, city health officer.

Dr. Evans declared that there are more than 800 cases of measles in the city, and suggested the closing of schools as the most effective method of checking the outbreak.

The disease is of a mild form, it is said few of the children being dangerously ill but its spread throughout the city has been rapid and persistent.

REMOVAL OF GRANT CABIN FAVORABLE TO COMMITTEE

Columbus, Mar. 3—The house military affairs committee today decided to recommend passage of the Vandament bill, authorizing the state director of highways to remove the house in which General U. S. Grant was born from the state fair grounds here to the village of Point Pleasant where it is planned to again place the building on the site where the former President of the United States was born.

ARREST ROBBERY SUSPECT

Cleveland, Mar. 3—Sterl Hutchinson, 27, believed by local police to be the robber who posed as a telephone installer escaping with approximately $1,800 from three Cleveland banks in February, is under arrest here today.

Funds for Balto

Leader of Dog Team That Came to Rescue of Nome Wanted in Cleveland, Together With His Six Companion Huskies

Balto, leader of the dog team which came to the rescue of Nome, Alaska, during the diphtheria scourge of 1925 by bringing serum through Alaskan snows, is to take up his residence in the Cleveland zoo, if citizens of the Ohio city raising a fund to buy him and his six companion huskies have their way. The dogs have been on exhibit in a Los Angeles street museum. An interesting pose of Balto is shown above.

BILL PUTS DRY AGENTS UNDER CIVIL SERVICE

Only Another Filibuster Can Now Defeat New Reorganization Measure

Washington, Mar. 3—Out of the maelstrom of the senate's bedeviling seventh hour legislative psychosis the dry's emerged today with a civil service prohibition unit fished out of the parliamentary chaos by a 71 to 6 vote with the standard cloture hook.

Only another filibuster can now defeat the measure, which already has the approval of both houses. If the wets have given up the ghost, as was indicated by the final senate vote last night, the remaining legislative action will be merely a matter of formality during the last hours of the session before Friday noon.

The Anti-Saloon League regards the victory as the most important step in the direction of effective prohibition since the enactment of the Volstead Act.

The new reorganization law, which may become effective Apr. 1, establishes in the treasury department a semi-independent prohibition commissioner, under whom all enforcement employes shall be under the civil service code—engaged through competitive examinations and shielded from political pressure by a statutory appeal against dismissal from the service.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL, 14, SUICIDE AT CLEVELAND

Cleveland, Mar. 3—Helen Roach, 14, high school girl, is dead here today, a suicide. The girl shot herself with a revolver last night and died shortly after being removed to a hospital. So far, no motive has been determined for the girl's act.

SLIDE BLOCKS ROAD

Pomeroy, Mar. 3 — State Highway No. 7, between here and Millersport is blocked today as the result of a landslide which dumped several hundred tons of rock upon the road. Traffic on the Hocking Valley, at first reported suspended between these two points, has been maintained without interruption.

PATROLMAN IS CHARGED WITH COMPLICITY

Indictment Follows Testimony Given Grand Jury by Mrs. Florence Mellett

STREITENBERGER NAMED

Stark County Probers Delve Deeper into Slaying of Publisher

Canton, Mar. 3—Floyd Streitenberger, Canton police officer, was today indicted by the Stark County Grand Jury, charged with complicity in the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, July 16, 1926.

The indictment followed testimony given to the grand jury by Mrs. Florence Mellett, widow of the slain newspaperman, Ora Slater, Cincinnati detective and others.

The jury devoted considerable time during its session to investigating new angles in the case and had a quantity of strong evidence in its possession according to rumors spread before the report was announced this afternoon.

Movement for additional indictments in the case was an outgrowth, it was said, of information furnished officials by Patrick Eugene Mellersmott, immediately following his capture at Nanty Glo, Pa., several months ago. Mellersmott is now serving a life sentence at the Ohio Penitentiary.

Ben Rudner, second man to be convicted in the conspiracy, was also sentenced to life imprisonment and is now serving time.

Louis Marer, Canton, third man indicted for the shooting, is scheduled to go on trial for his life Mar. 10. Indictment of the police officer may alter this plan, however.

Bacteria Count in Marion's Milk Supply Lowest Since Inspection Work Started

Report of Dr. John T. Gruber Shows What New Department Has Accomplished Since Its Establishment; Raw Supply Greatly Improved, Claim

Evidence that Marion's milk and meat inspection department has accomplished important and valuable results since it began operating two years ago is found in the February report of the department's head, Dr. J. T. Gruber, showing that tests of the city's milk supply last month are the most satisfactory on record.

The report, read at the March meeting of the City Board of Health showed that the bacteria count in pasteurized milk tested by Dr. Gruber last month averaged 12,000 per cubic centimeter the lowest figure recorded for any month since the local inspection bureau began work two years ago.

First Tests

At the beginning, when the first tests were made by Dr. Gruber the bacteria count averaged in some instances considerably more than 100,000. The city's milk and meat inspection code, under which Dr. Gruber's department operates, stipulates that no pasteurized milk containing more than 50,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter shall be marketed. Dr. Gruber's monthly tests have shown that the local milk supply has been well within this limit at all times and that the quality of the product has been steadily improving, finally reaching the unusually low bacteria figure shown in the report for February.

Marked improvement has also been shown in the raw milk supply coming from dairy farms in the district, although the bacteria count last month was higher than recent averages. The count in February as shown by tests was 65,000. The minimum specified by the code is 100,000. Tests of raw milk during months preceding February were considerably below the February showing, Dr. Gruber states.

Lauds Dairymen

This steady and marked improvement in the quality of Marion's milk supply has resulted, Dr. Gruber stated, from close co-operation of the owners of pasteurizing plants and operators of dairy farms with the local inspection department. Regulations and requirements of the city code have been fully complied with, Dr. Gruber states.

During January and February, the department head reported, he made 198 inspections at dairy farms. There are 1,046 cows on the farms visited during the two months and the inspections showed that the daily production of milk sent to the local market from these farms averaged 2,438 gallons. This production could be doubled, Dr. Gruber said, if all of the 1,046 cows were entirely dairy stock. The city inspector says that only about 20 per cent of the cows in the district under his supervision are bred for dairy purposes.

Twenty-seven per cent of the 1,046 cows included in last month's inspections have been tuberculin tested, the report showed.

TOO EXPENSIVE

Henry Ford Drops Golf Pro: Costs Too Much, Claim

Detroit, Mar. 3—Because it was not a good investment, Henry Ford, the world's wealthiest man, has dispensed with the services of Davey Robertson, golf pro, at the Dearborn Country Club, located on the automobile king's estate, it was learned today. Robertson was dropped as an economy measure, it was reported. Another pro, one not quite so expensive, will be engaged.

The Dearborn Country Club is owned by Ford. Members are obtained by invitation and pay dues to the club, which is Ford. Robertson had been working under a guarantee.

CLEVELAND TIMES QUITS AFTER FIVE-YEAR TRY

Cleveland, Mar. 3— The Cleveland Times, morning paper, in today's issue, announced its suspension of publication. Failure as a business venture was given as the cause. The Times has been published here for five years.

$30,000 FIRE DAMAGE

Covington, Ky., Mar. 3—Two new coal elevators of the J. T. Hatfield Coal Co., situated on the Ohio River here, were destroyed in a spectacular blaze early today. Damage caused by the blaze, which could be seen for miles, was estimated at $30,000.

DEATHS OF FIVE BABIES BRINGS SEARCHING PROBE

Commissioner Believes Nurse Administered Boric Acid for Drinking Water

Chicago, Mar. 3—The deaths of five girl babies, all less than 15 days old, who died in convulsions at Columbus Memorial Hospital here after being administered to by a nurse, was the subject of a searching investigation today.

The tragedy occurred early yesterday, it was learned, but was not reported until last night when Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen was notified. After a brief investigation, Dr. Bundesen stated his belief that a nurse had mistaken boric acid for drinking water in administering to the infants.

The babies ranging in age from three to 14 days, all died within a few hours. Hurried funerals were given four of them yesterday, it was said, before Dr. Bundesen began his investigation.

When Coroner Oscar Wolff was notified he issued orders to stop the funeral of the fifth victim. He called for an inquest this afternoon. He announced post-mortems would be held and an effort made to determine which of five nurses made the fatal mistake.

Soon after the tragedy had been made public, hospital authorities issued the following statement:

"After a conference with Commissioner Bundesen and a most careful investigation of the records, we can only conclude that probably a solution of boric acid in the drinking water given the five children caused the deaths. We are making every effort to verify this."

USE STRONG MAGNET TO TAKE STEEL FROM EYE

L. E. Hurst, 47, Steam Shovel Craneman, in City Hospital After Accident

L. E. Hurst, 47, of 259 Edwards-st, craneman at the Marion Steam Shovel Co. is in City Hospital today suffering from an injured eye which he sustained Saturday when a piece of steel flew from the metal he was chipping and lodged in his eyeball.

He was removed from the Shovel emergency hospital to Grant Hospital, Columbus, where, with the aid of a giant steel magnet the particle was removed. He was later removed to City Hospital where today his condition is reported slightly improved. It is thought that it will not be necessary to remove the eye, attending physicians state.

ENGLISH SIGNS TO PLAY WITH CUBS; GETS $4,000

Chicago, Mar. 3—Elwood English, shortstop recruit, today signed a contract with the Chicago Cubs for an annual salary said to be $4,000 and a portion of the purchase price of $50,000, paid by the Cubs to the Toledo Club of the American Association.

NEW ELECTRIC SWITCH SYSTEM WILL BE TRIED

New York Central Lines Employes New Plan To Prevent Double Tracking

A system of electrical signals and switches, the first of its kind in the United States, is being installed along 26 miles of single track on the New York Central Lines between Bucyrus and Toledo, it was learned in local railroad offices today. The General Railway Signal Co. has charge of the work.

The new system is being employed in order to avoid building a double track through this section, a very expensive

To Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to make. Saves about $2

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is, pine has a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, and tastes good.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, bronchitis, and hoarseness.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Work Completed

Work on the Erie Railroad yards at Waldo has been completed, it was reported here today. The yards will be used by passenger trains only.

Rail Briefs

W. L. Ritter, engineer of maintenance of way of the Hocking Valley Railroad, has an office in Columbus, was in Marion yesterday.

Charles H. Parsons of Columbus, safety inspector of the Hocking Valley, was a visitor in the local yards yesterday.

Laying of new rail on the Hocking Valley near Delaware is making rapid progress, it was reported here today. The Hocking Valley ramp was moved to that section late Monday after the laying of new 130-pound rail north of Marion.

Freight traffic continues to forge ahead briskly, reports of local freight offices signify. Exchange of cars between the various railroads operating through this city is also on the increase.

FIRST MARBLE SHIPMENT IS EXPECTED NEXT WEEK

Prepare To Start Harding Memorial as Soon as Weather Permits

The first shipment of marble to be used in construction of the Harding Memorial tomb has been made from the quarries of the Georgia Marble Co. at Tate, Ga., and is expected to arrive here next week, Hoke Donithen, official of the Harding Memorial Association stated today. This shipment consists of two carloads and others are scheduled for the near future.

Preparations for starting construction work as soon as weather conditions become favorable are well under way and yesterday a representative of the Georgia company was here inspecting the memorial site to arrange for placing the marble on its arrival.

The Elford Construction Co., which has been awarded the construction contract, is now making preliminary arrangements at its office in Columbus for beginning work at the earliest possible date.

NEW S. S. KRESGE STORE MANAGERS ARE NAMED

Chicago Man To Head Organization; Assistant To Come from Cincinnati

C. O. Kroeguist of Chicago, an assistant manager and Ram Hickman, present assistant manager of the S. S. Kresge Co., coming from Cincinnati, have been appointed manager and assistant manager of the new Kresge building on W. Center st., it was announced today.

Mr. Kroeguist has been employed as assistant manager of the Kresge store in Lancaster, Pa., and Mr. Hickman has been an employee of the company at Cincinnati.

Both Mr. Kroeguist and Mr. Hickman are now in the city and are making arrangements for the formal opening of the store, which will take place not later than March 19. Stock and equipment is arriving daily and work of installation is proceeding rapidly with workmen on the job night and day. The management hopes to get everything in readiness so that the opening can be held on March 17—St. Patrick's day—this date being regarded as especially appropriate for the "green front" store.

Whether this arrangement will prevail or not will not be known for several days, Mr. Kroeguist stated today.

Twelve Clerks

The store will employ a force of 12 clerks but approximately 25 will be engaged for the opening activities, it is planned. Several applications for clerkships and office work have already been made, Mr. Kroeguist said. Construction work on the Kresge building started on Nov. 1 and was completed a week before a force of workmen finished putting on the finishing touches. The general contract was held by Charles W. Taylor of Zanesville.

R. M. Gardner of Cincinnati, one of the Kresge Co.'s building superintendents who has been here during the work, arrived yesterday afternoon and after the store is stocked will inspect the store at regular intervals.

Relieves Piercing Pains of Neuritis

When you have pains shooting through your head and temples, and you're sure you have neuritis, don't go to Bradford's drug store or wait for your druggist but get a bottle of Allenru Special Formula No. 2. Be sure you get No. 2 which comes in tablet form.

Take these little dark green capsules as directed and in about 24 hours you should be able to notice that your pains are considerably reduced, if not entirely relieved. Those persistent, nerve racking pains that have caused you many sleepless nights.

While this particular formula is the result of the purpose of relieving painful Gouty conditions and pains as Neuritis, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Rheumatism, it also counteracts Nerve Pains.

You cannot be afraid to take these if any kind of pain, Nerve Pains are only manifested in one part of the body.

Be sure you get Neuritis and get Allenru Special Formula No. 2 from Bradford's Drug Store and not a substitute.

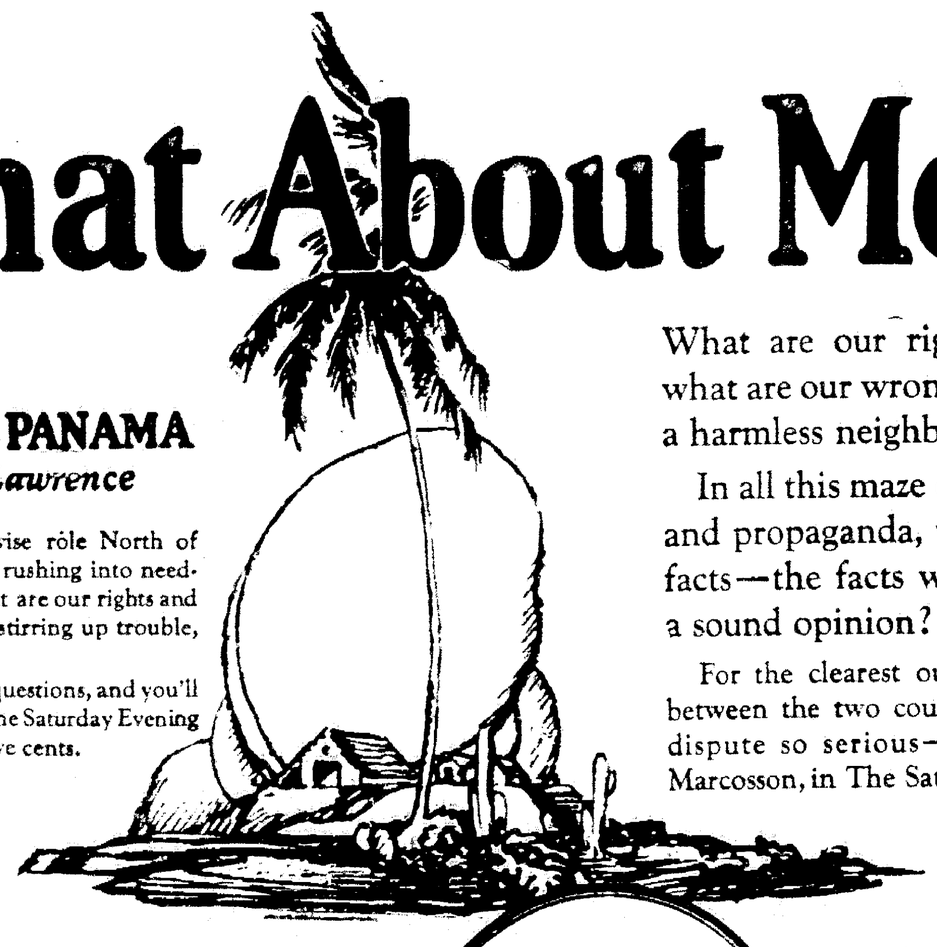
What About Mexico?



NORTH OF PANAMA
By David Lawrence

Are we playing a wise rôle North of Panama—or are we rushing into needless difficulties? What are our rights and our duties? Who is stirring up trouble, and why?

These are serious questions, and you'll find the answers in The Saturday Evening Post, now on sale, five cents.

What are our rights, right now, in Mexico? And what are our wrongs? Have we shamelessly exploited a harmless neighbor?

In all this maze of passion and prejudice, ignorance and propaganda, where lies the truth? What are the facts—the facts we must know before we can form a sound opinion?

For the clearest outline of just what matters are in dispute between the two countries—and just what influences make this dispute so serious—read The Mexican Complex by Isaac F. Marcosson, in The Saturday Evening Post, now on sale, five cents.

PELTY

THE CINDERELLA MOTIF
By J. P. Marquand

That Gold Coast youth, Beverley Endicott Witherspoon, knew shockingly little about the Cinderella motif. But when, right in the middle of one of Beacon Street's most exclusive dances, the aforesaid motif walked up and hit him—well, he started to learn, and he learned fast!

BOOTH TARKINGTON
Next Week

Genial Governor Golding lived pretty thoroughly for the good times of life. Of all things, he most profoundly enjoyed an excellent dinner in good company followed by a game of poker. A friend he had thought dead for many years comes back into his life for one night, and the message that he brings opens a new world to his host. Booth Tarkington's story, Mr. White, in next week's issue of The Saturday Evening Post, is so unusual and so impressive that it will stir your memory for many a year.

Norma Talmadge and the movies have grown up together. In a series of articles she tells the story of the films from that eventful day back in 1910 when she and her little sister Constance played their first rôles in one of the early crudely-equipped studios, down to the present time. All who are interested in the stuff that stars are made of will be fascinated by her Close-Ups of those who have played with her in front of the camera.

FAILING HEALTH FORCED HIM TO WORK OUT DOORS

Now Back on Inside Job; Feels Better Than For Years; Credits Tepee Herb Tonic With Complete Recovery

We can't all work out of doors where the air is pure and exercise is an aid to health. And so, the men and women who work in stores, offices and shops often fall an easy prey to stomach, kidney and liver troubles. Such people will find Redwood's Tepee Herb Tonic an invaluable medicine.

Charles D. Whiting, R. R. 5, Box 129B, South Bend, Ind., says: "For eight years I was troubled with gas on my stomach. I was also constipated and had numerous headaches and dizzy spells. I worked in a printing establishment and had to give up inside work and go to collecting so that I would have the benefit of pure air and good exercise. But my outside work didn't help mine.

"A short time ago I started to take Tepee Herb Tonic and it worked wonders for me. I am now going back to work in the printing plant. I am never troubled with gas on my stomach. Neither do I have headaches or dizzy spells. Redwood's Tepee Tonic simply put a new lease on life. I am delighted to recommend it."

Tepee Herb Tonic is sold and recommended by Bradley's, Henney & Cooper's, Wm. M. Stump, Bartlett's, Lower's Pharmacy, and all drug stores. Richwood, H. L. Kyle, and by well stocked drug stores everywhere.—Adv.

ROBBER BELIEVED HURT IN EXCHANGE OF SHOTS

Cincinnati, Mar. 3—Police today believed than an unidentified man, one of three who attempted to break into a downtown drug store early today, was either badly wounded or killed during a pistol battle.

Two officers came upon the men, who were trying to force a window in the store, and the three ran to a waiting automobile and opened fire.

The officers returned the shots. A window in the rear of the escaping car, behind which one of the men was seated, was riddled by the officers' fire.

The car did not halt however, and no trace has been found of the trio, police said.

I'm Most Grateful Every Month

Here's glorious news for long-suffering womankind! To every woman who periodically has suffered pain. Menstruation need no longer be painful. And it is Science that is speaking!

Specialists have developed a tiny tablet called midol. It's a simple thing, utterly harmless to a girl of fourteen, but it brings relief in five to seven minutes. And is effective twelve hours or longer!

Midol is NOT a narcotic. It has no effect whatever on heart or nervous system. It acts directly on those organs affected by menstruation. They function normally, as they should, but the pain is banished. Complete relief—yes, perfect comfort—follows midol. Your druggist has midol for 50 cents, in a slim aluminum box to tuck in your purse.

Saint Rita Guild Votes to Take Charge of Work in St. Paul Sunday School

Organization Meets at Home of Miss Jennings; Group Also To To Sponsor Basketball Team; President Presented with Gift of Silver

Members of Saint Rita Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, at a meeting held last night at the home of Miss Frances Jennings, 240 S. State-st, decided to take charge of the Sunday School department of the church beginning Sunday, Mar. 6, which will be known as "Saint Rita Guild".

The request that the guild take over the Sunday School was made by the vestry of the church following a recent meeting. Mrs. Walter Edwin Hane, president of the guild, appointed a committee to direct the Sunday School arrangements. This is composed of Mrs. Thomas H. Sutherland, chairman, Mrs. Fred Haberman, Mrs. A. W. Lares, Mrs. W. E. Orcutt, and Misses Louise Burgin, Virginia Cobbold, Charlotte McMurray, Theresa Lockwood, Jane Guthery, Una Ackley, Beulah Hammond and Frances Jennings.

It was planned to sponsor a Sunday School basketball team, to aid in the purchasing of new equipment for the Sunday School department, and to furnish a corps of teachers. Arrangements were also made for the transportation of children to and from Sunday School.

It was also decided to furnish flowers for the altar Easter Sunday and to assist members of the Woman's Auxiliary with a luncheon Thursday noon, Mar. 10. Arrangements were made to sell tea as a means of raising money for Lent. Mrs. C. E. Martindill, Mrs. Robert McMurray and Misses Charlotte McMurray, Jean De Wolfe, Ruth Hageman and Vonnie Cook were enrolled as new members. Guests of the guild were Mrs. Douglas Felt, Mrs. Carl Deane, and little Miss Jaqueline Lares and George Orcutt.

Honor President

The devotional services was conducted by Miss Una Ackley after which an interesting paper, "The Purpose of Lent," prepared by Miss Mary Lee Concklin, was read by Miss Catherine Storaci. Two delightful readings were given, "Mia Carlotta," by Miss Jane Guthery, and "Isaac Stein's Busy Day," by Miss Elizabeth Morgan. Thirty-two members responded to roll call with "ways of observing Lent."

During a social hour Mrs. Walter Lee Sherfey, and Misses Beulah Hammond, Theresa Lockwood, Dorothy Haynes and Frances Jennings, hostesses, served lunch, assisted by Mrs. F. H. Jennings.

Mrs. Hane, president of the guild, was presented a gift of silver compliments to her recent marriage.

The next meeting will b held Apr. 6 at the hom of Miss Frances Irvin, 545 Delaware-av, with Miss Grace Cooper as assistant hostess.

CONVERTS RECEIVED

Nine Accepted at Nazarene Revival Service Opening Sunday

Four converts were received at the altar at Nazarene Church, S. State-st, last night at the well-attended revival service held there. Nine converts have been accepted at the altar since the opening of the revival last Sunday.

Rev. T. M. Anderson, evangelist, preached from the text, Psalm 119, verses 5 and 6; "Oh, that my ways were directed to keep Thy statutes. Then shall I not be ashamed when I have respect unto all Thy commandments."

"We are living in an age when a great number of people have lost the fear of God", Reverend Anderson said in part, "many have their names listed on church records but manifest a spirit of indifference when it comes to a revival of a spiritual religion, which proves that we have many dead or inactive church members. If churchmen would live more consistently there would be more sinners brought under conviction," Reverend Andersen concluded.

Services will be held each night of this week and next, according to announcement of Rev. Frank H. Watkin, pastor, today.

D. R. Crissinger, of Washington, governor of the Federal Reserve Board, is spending a few days here.

Head of Ohio Federation Reviews Meeting Plans

Dr. Josephine Peirce, of Lima, president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, met yesterday afternoon at Hotel Harding, with chairman of the various committees on arrangements for the state convention to which Marion club women will be hostesses May 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Dr. Pierce went over the convention plans in detail with the committee members and complimented the women on the completeness and arrangement of the program of entertainment for the convention guests.

"It is not an expenditure of money but of time and thought that makes for the success of a convention," Dr. Pierce said. Much of the success of the convention depends on the first impressions of the delegates, she stated. She predicted the convention here would be a large one because of the central location in the state and the history connected with the city.

A meeting of the convention chairmen will be held at 7 o'clock Tuesday night, March 22, in the library auditorium at which time all the committees will be announced. It was announced by Mrs. Lewis Uhl, president of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs and general convention chairman.

Mrs. Depew Head, chairman of the department of Education of the State Federation, was in attendance at the meeting and later attended a conference with Dr. Peirce and Mrs. W. N. Harder, vice president at-large and conference chairman.

QUIT GETTING UP NIGHTS

A Healthy Bladder Acts During the Day

C. N. Shuman, Republic, Ohio, says: "Before taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) had to get up six or seven times each night. Now I do not get up at all. You may use my name if it would benefit anyone with bladder trouble." Be careful not to take drugs that check the action of the bladder. You may have to continue its use. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) increases the action during the day. It cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels driving out foreign matter, neutralizing excess acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes "Getting Up Nights." The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Carl G. Ungericht, druggist.—Adv.

MRS. WATZEL HOSTESS TO HARMONIE SOCIETY

Mrs. Ezra Watzel entertained members of the Harmonie Society, Salem Evangelical Church, yesterday afternoon at her home, E. Center-st. Following the scripture lesson by the president, Mrs. L. A. Cull, the study topic, "Our Synodical Board," was taken up. Mrs. Agnes Washum contributed a paper on the subject and Mrs. Leo Keller presented a discussion on a portion of the mission study book, "Building With India." Following a short business session the time was spent socially and lunch was served. The next meeting will be April 2 with Mrs. Lewis Watzel, E. Center-st.

CHAPTER FIFTY-FIVE

The cart rumbled on and came to the outskirts of the city just as the day was breaking. I asked the woman where was my place where I could leave Patience.

"Yes," she replied, "your wife will be well cared for by the Sisters. They are very good regulars and fruit, I can say," she added with pride, "as they buy much of our stock. We drive there at once," she continued, turning to the man.

We arrived at the Convent shortly after six, and after a few preliminary explanations, a white-capped lay sister transferred Patience to the care of the good nuns, I myself carrying her first into a small pinewood room and laying her in a clean, white bed.

"We will look after her, Monsieur," whispered the little sister.

"Thank you," I said. "I will call and see her later in the day."

I looked at Patience, who smiled at me and bade me a kind farewell. She looked very white and frail in the bed and an odd pang smote me. I still found it difficult, if not impossible, to believe all that I knew to be true about her.

Leaving the bed-room, I returned to the street, where I found the old peasant couple about to leave. I handed them ten francs and we parted with mutual expression of good will.

From the Convent I sought the hotel of the "Drei Konigen" where I told the same tale that had already done service when I had met the market cart. The management was most sympathetic and I was soon reveling in a hot bath.

After I had breakfasted I went to the office and inquired the time of the next train for Geneva. I was informed that there were two, one at ten in the morning, which would get me there about four in the afternoon, and one at three in the afternoon, which arrived at Geneva shortly after eleven. I debated for a moment which to take and finally decided on the later one. True, I should not get to Geneva until less than an hour before the rendezvous at the caves at Cartigny, but on the other hand, I was very tired, and I wanted to rest and to assure myself that Patience was comfortably placed.

I accordingly sent a telegram signed Claypole to the Commissioner of Police at Geneva, informing him that a Mr. Robert Querter would present himself at the Hotel de Ville shortly after eleven P. M., and requesting that some one should be there to receive him. Then I tumbled into bed and slept soundly.

I did not awaken until just before one o'clock, and after one of the best lunches I have ever eaten in my life, for I was desperately hungry, I set off for the Convent, arriving there shortly after two. I sent up my name and was told that Madam Smith was ready to receive me. The nuns further told me that her injuries were not serious, but that the blow to her head would necessitate complete rest and that I must not talk to her for long.

I found her sitting up in bed, in a dressing gown of blue wool, her hair in plaits, looking oddly attractive, despite the white bandage across her forehead.

"How are you, Robert?" she said, as I entered. "It was good of you to come and see me so soon. I hope you are rested."

I answered shortly that I was and added that I was departing in an hour or so for Geneva, but that I would leave money and instructions that she was to be well attended in my absence.

"Robert", she said, "I suppose I have no right to know your plans? But would it be too much to ask you to communicate with my—my husband?" She hesitated a moment before saying the word.

I stood, probably looking a little foolish, her request being so unexpected.

"I should like him to know at once where I am," she explained. "I should also like to speak to him about you. I must try to get him to appreciate your kindness."

"I'm afraid I cannot possibly communicate with your husband," I said. "And I don't think he would at all appreciate my services, such as they are, to his wife. His code is peculiar. You will, however, be informed, about him before very long."

"What do you mean?" she said. "You're very stiff and enigmatic. I shall write or telephone to him myself this afternoon. He will not be very anxious about me, though, for he imagines I am in the South of France."

"Indeed?" I said, surprised.

"He often sends me away when he has a big deal in hand", she explained. "He likes to keep me out of things. This time, you see, I didn't want to go, so stayed behind, and this is the deplorable result."

"Why didn't you wish to go?" I said.

She looked at me for a moment and then smiled.

"Curiosity," she said. "And perhaps a friendly interest in the amusing experiments of Doctor Kuntz."

"I'm sorry to be cutting at least one item out of that most entertaining program," I said. "And now I will bid you good day."

I bowed and turned to leave the room. In fact, I had already reached the door when she called me back.

Robert, she said. "Let us at least part friends. I must have been rather a shock to you, but I like to think that I was perhaps have been not unstimulating. Confess, you have never met any one quite like me before, have you?"

"That is most certainly true. I replied.

"Shake hands," she continued, and she extended her slim fingers.

"Surely," I said. "Now I have got away. I bear you no malice though to speak frankly, I find it difficult to know exactly what to think of you."

I shook hands and found that for a moment my fingers were held.

"Robert," she said, "I can't let you go like this. You must sit down a moment and listen to me."

"Pardon me," I objected. "I have little time to lose."

"I don't believe you have the least idea what you are going to do next," she replied. "In any case, it will be quite useless. You don't know what is in store for you."

"I know very well," I responded coldly. "I am going back to my bank in Paris and I shall forget all about you and the Center and everything else."

"An excellent program," she said. "But you won't be allowed to forget. Do you suppose that the Center will let you get away? You have somehow escaped from Doctor Kuntz's Home, and you are resourceful, Robert. But the Center can have you taken as soon as he wishes."

"I'll take the risk," I said.

"But I want to help you, Robert. Our organization is spread over the whole world. We have agents in every country, almost in every town. A word spoken down the telephone in a house only a few kilometers from here would result in your capture within a few hours."

She delivered all with so serene a confidence in the Center and his plans that I was sorely tempted to hint that he was at last outwitted and going blindly to his own arrest. But I overcame the impulse. I could not afford to take any risks. At all costs Claypole, alias Finckelstein, must be left with an entirely free hand.

"Why do you tell me this?" I asked. "Even supposing what you say is true, it cannot help me."

"But I want to help you," she pleaded. "Believe me, I do, truly."

Couldn't Walk Steady Man Blames Gas

For years I suffered from gas on the stomach. At times I could not walk and felt like I would topple over. Adlerika has done me more good than anything I have ever taken."—P. F. Carr.

Adlerika is a compound of the best saline intestinal cleanser with glycerine, buckthorn, cascara and other gas-expelling and detergent elements. It is excellent for Intestinal Stasis, a disease due to modern ways of living and which is often the true cause of sour stomach, gas, belching, nervous dyspepsia and sleepless sleep.

Unlike most medicines, Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, flushing the intestines a REAL cleansing and bringing out old poisonous matter you never thought was in your system. Even if bowels move daily, you will be surprised how much more old matter Adlerika brings out which may have been causing all your trouble. In slight disorders, like occasional constipation, GAS bloating, indigestion or sick headache, ONE spoonful always brings relief.

Doctors Praise Adlerika

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria."

Dr. A. C. Curl: "I prescribe Adlerika with highly satisfactory results."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated from my system."

Dr. F. M. P. (name withheld by request): "I use Adlerika in all bowel cases. Some require only one dose."

No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adlerika will surprise you. At leading druggists. Bradley's Drug Store and other druggists.—Adv.

"Delighted"

When Roosevelt accompanied "delighted" with his famous smile, it set a stamp of approval on whatever so pleased him! Just such approval vivacious Miss Helena Weichert ,331 East 65th St. New York City, gives when she says: "I'm simply delighted with the wonderful way Black and White Cold Cream is improving my skin—softening and refining its texture, plumping out the least suspicion of hollow in my neck, and preventing chapping and roughness. This exquisitely textured cream is so soft and velvety itself it seems to pass these good qualities on to my complexion and to make it lovelier than it's ever been before."

You'll be delighted, too, with the soothing touch and the beautifying effect of the rich, nourishing Black and White Cold Cream which you can get from dealers everywhere, along with the other Black and White Beauty Creations, at the popular 25c and 50c prices.

If your dealer doesn't have the Black and White Beauty Creations you want, send his name to Plough, Dept. 87, Memphis, Tenn., and you will receive free a copy of the Birthday and Dream Book, containing many interesting facts on beauty, dreams and fortune telling.

Dicky Apologizes

FOR half a minute seconds after Dicky's explosion there was absolute silence in the living room. My father's fine expressive face set into stern lines and I knew that he was both hurt and offended by Dicky's rudeness. As to myself I was taking with fury that my husband should speak to such a person to my father, whose only offense had been a tender solicitude for his son-in-law's welfare with a suggestion that he ought to consult a physician.

I scorned to dignify his rudeness by betraying that I had noticed it, yet I flamed with the desire to make him feel the same hurt which he had given my father, and I suddenly yielded to the temptation to say with an aggravating little drawl:

"I quite agree with you, Dicky. You do not need a doctor, only a little common sense in your eating and drinking."

My father sent a grieved reproachful glance at me.

"Margaret!" he said in a tone such as I never had heard from his lips, but Dicky interrupted.

"She's absolutely right, Dad, only she ought to have added that I also need a few lessons in common decency and politeness. I'm awfully sorry I snapped you up that way. Will you accept my very heartfelt apology?"

Dicky is as royal in his repentance as he is quick to irritation. Although he must have had a real grievance against me, he included me in his expression of contrition.

"Sorry I stepped on Katie's toes old dear" he said with an engaging smile. "I guess it was my own indigestion instead of bad cooking which spoiled the dinner for me. But I'll forgive you if you'll make me up some of that iced fruit punch you always fix for me at night. It's the only thing that tastes good to me. I'm terribly thirsty."

My lips opened to tell him that he was drinking altogether too much of his favorite mixture of fruit juices which at his insistence I prepared and left in the refrigerator each night, and to which when he was read for it, he added ginger ale. From this concoction he refreshed himself while reading in bed. It was my private opinion that his over-indulgence in this favorite beverage of his was largely responsible for his capricious appetite. But with the words of expostulation upon my lips I changed them to a pleasant "of course," and rose to go back to the kitchen, for I knew better than to suggest that Katie should make the beverage. It is one the proportions and mixture of which I had invented myself, and Dicky does not like any one else to prepare it for him.

"Make enough so Dad can have a swig, too," Dicky directed genially. "If you like it, Dad," he continued, turning to my father, "I'll let you share my nightly toddy."

The uneasiness which I felt at Dicky's own over indulgence in the acid beverage, coupled with a knowledge of my father's constitution made my reply quick and sharp.

"Indeed you'll do nothing of the sort. Father never can take anything which has lemon juice in it. But, Father," turning to him, "I'll fix you up anything else you wish. A glass of iced orange juice, perhaps?"

He put up his hand with a protesting laugh.

"After that dinner? Indeed, no. You, yourself, will have to share his tippling."

I shook my head with a little laugh. "I feel as you do," I said, "I could add neither meat nor drink to that dinner."

"Well! I'm game," Dicky said stubbornly, "even though I do hate to drink alone. Make up an extra lot, Madge. I don't believe I ever was so thirsty in my life."—Copyright, 1927.

Recipes for New and Novel Dishes; Household Ideas and Suggestions

Apples are one of the most healthful and easily obtained fruits and should be more used in the family diet. Following are two recipes that may be new to most of you.

Clear Bouillon Croutons
Baked Pork Chops
Baked Potatoes Creamed Corn
Cabbage-Apple Salad
Apple Pudding or Stuffed Apples
Tea or Coffee

Cabbage-Apple Salad—Use one third cup apples cut in small pieces to two-thirds cup chopped cabbage, a bit of onion, a green pepper and two or three stalks of celery, chopped. Mix, season with your favorite salad dressing. Nuts may be added to this salad if you like.

Best Ever Apple Pudding—Six medium sized apples, one-half cup water, one-quarter teaspoon salt, one-half cup sugar, three-quarter cup flour, six tablespoons butter or butter substitute, one-half teaspoon cinnamon (or spice to taste). Slice the peeled and cored apples in a baking dish, add water and sprinkle with the spice. In a separate dish sift together the sugar, flour and salt. Melt the butter substitute (or butter) and combine with the dry ingredients. Crumble over the apples and bake in a moderate oven till apples are well cooked and the crust brown.

Stuffed Apples — Wash well and scoop out a little of the centers of four large, firm apples. Put in shallow pan and add one-half to three-quarters cup of sugar, according to sourness of the apples, and one cup of boiling water. To four tablespoons of cold cooked rice add one-half cup of cream, one-quarter cup of sugar and a few drops of vanilla. Beat until creamy and fill the apples with the mixture, sprinkle over them a little cinnamon and bake in a hot oven until apples become tender and brown. A marshmallow placed on top of each filled apple and browned in the oven is a tasty addition.

What Girls In Paris Do

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I make yearly trips to France, and have done so for many years. Just to find the best aids to beauty and to youth.

There many able scientists give their lives to beauty study. And their results are known everywhere. I am trying to bring to American women the best ideas they develop. I want them for myself and for you.

One of the best ideas I found there is a way to clean the skin. It is a liquid which contains no animal, no vegetable grease. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin. It simply penetrates the pores to the depths, then departs. When you wipe it off, all the grime, all that clogs the skin comes with it.

This is what I use to clean my face skin as girls do in Paris. I never use soap and water. Results are astounding. When you learn them you will always do as I do.

I call this product my Facial Youth. It will bring you a new conception of what a clean skin means. I urge you to try it. Take from your face skin all the hardened oil, dead skin and waste, and see the results.

All toilet counters sell Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth at 75c. Or the coupon will bring you a sample bottle with my Beauty Book. Try this facial cleanser. You will never know what a clean skin means until you do that.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.—Adv.

KEEP YOUR STOMACH RIGHT!

Gas, Heartburn, Discomfort ARE Serious! Here's an Old-fashioned Treatment that Keeps You Fit

THAT "full" feeling after meals—gas, heartburn, discomfort, an occasional pain just over your stomach—these are Nature's way of telling you there's something wrong.

Dillingham's Plant Juice will help your liver and encourage your stomach—for that's what's wrong! Your stomach's not working right.

Mrs. Lillian Bitting of 410 Max St., Allentown, Pa., says:

"Since I began on Plant Juice it has rid me of all my ailments. Three years ago my appetite was so poor I did not care whether I ate or not. Gas caused severe pains, my nerves were upset and robbed me of many a night's sleep. During the day I felt dull, listless and weak. Now these pains and distress are things of the past. My nerves are calm and steady, my sleep is sound and unbroken, and I go about my housework singing."

Plant Juice is compounded from herbs and plants. This pleasant tasting remedy works naturally, easily, without any discomfort. It cleanses your whole system, purifies your blood and tones up your body.

The first few doses will give you a chance to see how much better you feel. But don't stop, just because of that—give this fine old remedy a chance to do you some real good. Ask your druggist for the original Dillingham's Plant Juice.

Interested Throng Fills Galion Council Chamber for Reading of Ordinance

Cleveland Southwestern Traction Co. Seeking 20-Year Franchise; Citizens Urge City Legislators to Make Careful Investigation Before Acting

Galion, Mar. 3—Interested citizens that filled the council room of the city building Thursday night when the council met in regular session to consider city improvement problems and principally the renewal of the franchise of the Cleveland Southwestern Traction Co. This important issue has been much discussed recently and property owners from all parts of the city were present at the meeting. The ordinance [illegible] referred to the committee on laws and ordinances for further consideration.

The traction company asks for a renewal of the franchise for twenty years.

L. M. Liggett as representative of property owners and other citizens concerned, urged careful investigation before action is taken. Liggett also made a request for a public hearing on the ordinance before the committee submits it for a second reading.

The ordinance as it is at present is much changed from the original form and in order to safeguard public interests citizens are urging that radical changes be made.

The ordinance will be given a second reading Mar. 5 and copies of it have been distributed so that citizens may have the privilege of acquainting themselves with its details.

Hundreds of Cage Fans to Attend Kenton Tournament

KENTON, Mar. 3—Hundreds of basketball fans from northwestern Ohio will gather in Kenton tomorrow when the district high school class A basketball tournament will open at the Hardin county armory gym.

The first contest will get under way Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Kenton and St. Marys tangle. In the second game of the afternoon session an hour later Van Wert and Central High of Lima will meet.

The sessions in the evening will find the best teams of the district going into action. At 7:30 St. Rose of Lima will play Ada and at 8:30 o'clock Lima South takes on Bowling Green.

Draw Byes

Findlay and Wapakoneta, whose teams drew the bye of the week, will meet for the first time in the opening games on Saturday at two. At 3 o'clock the winner of the Kenton-St. Marys game will play the winner of the Van Wert-Lima Central fray.

The first round of the finals will start at 8 o'clock with the winners of St. Rose-Ada and Lima South-Bowling Green games playing. Following this game the two Saturday afternoon winners will play. The winners of the two evening games will represent the district at the Findlay regional tourney next week.

It is practically impossible to pick winners in the meet but it seems likely that at least one Lima team will come through. With their star player out of the line-up Kenton High will have a hard time this year keeping up their record of the past.

MARYSVILLE HIGH IS VICTORIOUS OVER ALUMNI

Union County Fans Confident of Triumph in First Tourney Round

Marysville, Mar. 3—Marysville High school alumni went down before Coach Gerald L. King-more's regulars last night by a score of 31 to 16 in a hard fought basketball game played on the local armory floor. In the preliminary game which was between two county classes the team coached by Warren Orbaugh, star of Gortners by a 27 to 11 score.

In the main game the veterans of the regulars learned that the former stars had not forgotten all of their basketball tactics. The game was not an easy one and with a little more practice and team work on the part of the Alumni aggregation the score might have had a different ending. The half ended 19 to 9 in favor of the high school.

Forward Bush was again a star performer in the Marysville lineup with four baskets and 2 free throws to his credit. He was followed by Simpson at guard who had 3 baskets and a free throw. Then Noel, forward, with three baskets, and Markan, with two baskets to his credit.

Raines, veteran center of last year's high school quintet was the outstanding player on the Alumni squad. He furnished five goals and 3 free throws. Cody and Rausch came next in scoring. Others in the Alumni line were Braun, lf.; Carp, r. f.; Schoenleb, c.; Nicol, g.; McMahon, l. f. and Sawyer, l. g.

At the drawing for the District tournament at Delaware to be held next Saturday, Marysville drew the Rushville team as opponent for the first round. It is not thought likely that the locals will have much trouble in disposing of its opponent of the first round but it is expected that they will have considerable trouble in wading through the Baxter quintet in the second round providing both teams win in the first round.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Mrs. C. R. Selanders Hostess to Prospect Methodist Organization

Prospect, Mar. 3—Mrs. C. R. Selanders was hostess to the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Tuesday afternoon, at her home on S. Main-st. CAPACITY HOUSE GREETS KENTON SCHOOL OPERETTA

Kenton, March 3—Capacity houses greeted the presentation of the operetta, "No Manners Land," presented Wednesday afternoon and evening by the students of the fifth and sixth grades of the grammar school. The elaborate musical in which approximately 100 students participated, was directed by Owen Roberts, director of music in Kenton's public schools.

Kiwanis Club Members and Wives Guests

Kenton, Mar. 3—The first of a series of joint meetings planned by the Kiwanis Club with agricultural groups during the coming year to foster a closer relationship between urban and rural life, was held last night at Wolf Creek Grange hall, south of here.

More than 100 Kiwanians, their friends and ladies were guests of the grangers at supper and later entertained their hosts with a program of music, brief talks and entertainment.

The social affair was one of the most successful in the history of the club and served as an important factor in effecting a more solid unity of residents in the community.

Earl W. Smith Kiwanis president, was the man of the meeting and presided and in a brief talk pointed out the similarity in the purpose of the Kiwanis and the grange in that both organizations strive to build and each provides the open forum feature for discussion of leading community topics.

Welcomed By Master

Visitors were welcomed by B. F. McCullough, grange master. The grange committee in general charge of the program included Mrs. Elsie Richards, Mrs. Tressie Summeister and Russell Bliss. D. C. Mohlzberry, chairman of the Kiwanis agricultural committee, was in charge of the club arrangements.

The excellent program of music was presented by high school singers under the direction of Owen Roberts, director of public school music. Miss Nau Johnson, daughter of Perle Johnson, presented a series of delightful readings.

The program of music included: vocal selection, "Honey Town," Elizabeth Pfeiffer, Olive Bush and Ruth White; solo, "One Fleeting Hour," Elizabeth Pfeiffer; quartet, "Sundown," and "Who's Who," Elizabeth Pfeiffer, Olive Bush, Ruth White and Mr. Roberts; duets, "Lassie O' Mine," and "Good night," Elizabeth Pfeiffer and Ruth White.

MILWAUKEE SALESMAN IS GALION HOLDUP VICTIM

C. W. Geary Hit Over Head and Relieved of Cash and Valuables

Galion, Mar. 3—G. W. Geary, salesman, Milwaukee, Wis., is confined here today suffering from a slight fracture of the skull as a result of a sidewalk holdup within one block of the public square here last night. His condition is not considered serious.

The story recounted to police is that Geary was directly in front of the Buckeye Dairy Co., Harding Way West at 10:15 o'clock when he was accosted by two men, who forced him to retire into a nearby alley. They relieved him of nearly $100 in cash and other valuables and one of them struck him over the head with an implement believed to have been the butt of a revolver, when he resisted them. He was unconscious when found a few minutes later by J. D. Stotler, local Penny Co. store manager. Medical aid was given at the Central Hotel. Geary did not regain consciousness for several hours.

A police chase instigated on the theory that the bandits had escaped in a nearby auto proved fruitless.

BIG FOUR TRAIN CRASHES INTO LOADED TRUCK

Charles Hinklin Second Accident Victim of Recent Date at St. James

Iberia, Mar. 3—Charles Hinklin, 26, was in a serious condition at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Galion, today as a result of the second grade crossing accident of the past several weeks at St. James, east of here yesterday afternoon.

Big Four eastbound passenger train No. 46 struck the loaded coal truck which Hinklin was driving at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday. Damage to the engine of the train resulting from the crash made it impossible to proceed immediately and Hinklin was taken to Galion in the Snyder ambulance. He was thrown several feet from the crossing by the force of the impact. Hospital attaches reported him to be suffering from a fractured skull, several bad cuts and internal injuries. He is conscious only at intervals.

The truck was the property of L. B. Kerr, Hinklin's employer. The coal and parts of the car were ground beneath the engine pilot in the crash.

Hinklin has been making his home with Mrs. S. H. Akire here. Kenneth Grooms, telegraph operator, was the victim of the other recent crash at the St. James Crossing.

Dandruffy Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff falls.—Adv.

16 STATIONS PLAN TO CARRY PROGRAM

Broadcast on Friday

WGY, Schenectady, WFAA, Dallas, and WTOO, Bristow, Okla., will join WEAF, New York, and other chain stations in the broadcast of Goldman's band concert from the New York stage at 8 o'clock, Friday night. A total of 16 stations will transmit the program.

SILENT STATIONS FRIDAY NIGHT

CENTRAL — KLDS, WSMB, KPRC, WLW, WSAI, WCBD.
EASTERN — WFI, WGBS, WIP, WHEC, WEAO, WHAZ, WLWL, CFCA.

At 9 o'clock, Friday night, Gerda Hellinska, brilliant coloratura soprano soloist, will give a half-hour concert.

Another great Friday night concert is scheduled for 9 o'clock, for a chain of WJZ, New York, and associated blue network microphones. The artists have not yet been announced.

It's "Michigan Night" at WWJ, Detroit, Friday night. The program starts at 9 o'clock.

WLW SILENT

WLW, Cincinnati, will be silent Friday night.

WTAM, Cleveland, will offer a dance program at 11 o'clock Friday night following the regularly weekly program from New York City, which will be broadcast from WEAF, New York. The Cleveland station will take part in the Goldman band concert at 8 o'clock.

The "phantom violinist" who has gained fame among radio listeners will be heard again at 10:30, Friday night through WGN, Chicago. The identity of the violinist has not yet been made known to the public.

Marguerite Lemmey will present a program at 9:30, Friday night from WHAD, Milwaukee.

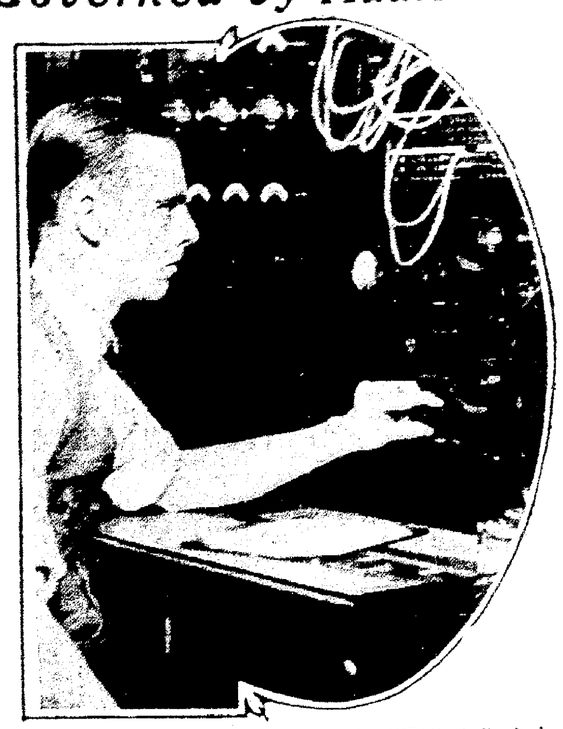
Arrogance is a greater besetting sin than the lore of money. Whom do we want to hate?

Radio's Sound Volume Governed by Audio Man



J. D. Disbrow at the audio panel of Station WTAM at Cleveland.

(This is the second of series of six articles on the inner workings of a big radio broadcasting station).

In a radio station current is supplied to the microphones before which the artist performs his or her special accomplishment, by the audio frequency panel.

Current from this same panel also amplifies the sound waves detected by the "mikes," as microphones are known around the studio. If a pair of headphones were clipped in on the microphone feeds the sound would be audible to the human ear but after leaving the first amplifier it is louder than the output of the average 4-tube receiving set. This is fed into a 50-watt tube and on leaving this it is a huge roar that would shatter any loudspeaker constructed today. And still this is passed through what is called the 250 watt stage, resulting in truly enormous power. From this last step it is fed to the radio frequency panel where is a separate story.

"Grinding the Gain"

On the audio panel are numerous controls. By means of these the operator on watch can control the volume of sound that goes out into the air. He/she must listen to every bit of the broadcasting himself sitting with the headphones.

Two men work in one-hour watches, but only when the other, "grinding the gain." Their check of volume is a loudspeaker connected in the audio panel and two volume indicators or galvanometers. The galvanometers are sensitive to the least fluctuation in sound from the microphones and by the deflection of the needle the operator determines his output.

How Quick Shifts Are Made

Most of the changes are made with split sentences, one announcer starting a sentence and another at a point miles away, finishing it. Thus standstill of radio listeners are eliminated.

NO WAR—STALIN

Soviet Leader Declares Enemies of Russia Are Not Prepared

Moscow, Mar. 3—"There will be no war either this spring or this autumn because our enemies are not ready," declared Joseph Stalin, soviet leader, today when answering questions of workmen regarding the possibility of a break with Great Britain with war as a result.

Stalin was speaking in a local election campaign when he was questioned regarding war possibilities.

"Our enemies fear the results of a war, because the workers of eastern Europe don't want to fight the soviet union," said Stalin. "We are pursuing a policy of peace.

"I believe a break with England is hardly possible, because it would accomplish nothing."

One who commits crime may be cleared, but one who is gossiped about seldom is.

ENGINEERING LEADERSHIP

in Every Price Class

FOUR GREAT NEW CARS!

With twenty-two body types ranging in price from $625 to $2295

4-wheel brakes throughout . . . clear vision corner posts . . . chassis low to the ground for greater safety . . . engine efficiency that excels in each price class . . . greater fuel economy, roomier interiors and finer coach work . . .

THREE years of intensive engineering along the most advanced lines now culminate in this great achievement, which places the entire line of Willys-Knight and Overland Whippet cars in a position of outstanding leadership in value . . . .

Measure these cars by the great standards of efficiency, economy, beauty, speed, power and endurance and you will be impressed by their superiority in every one of these vital features.

The WHIPPET Six—the Surprise of the Show—$765 to $925. A car combining all of the engineering advances of the Whippet with greater length, greater power, greater speed, greater liveliness. At a price so low that only the great popularity of the Whippet line makes it possible.

The WHIPPET—Internationally Famous—Now $625 to $755. Famous for its "30 miles on a gallon" and low gravity center. Light, smart, powerful, extremely roomy. The only light car that provides the necessary safety of 4-wheel brakes as national standard equipment. Shown in six distinctive, beautiful body styles. At new reduced prices, now more than ever the leader in light car values!

The WILLYS-KNIGHT Great Six—$1850 to $2295. A car whose great dignity and distinction has already established an enviable following among the leaders of American business and social life. Now more beautiful—more powerful—more luxurious—a car that has more miles of carefree service than any automobile of its distinguished class. With an engine that grows smoother, quieter, more efficient with every mile of service.

The "70" WILLYS-KNIGHT Six—$1295 to $1495. With new beauty of interior detail—new refinements of coachwork—smoother operation—great power and speed—a car so delightful to drive that thousands of its owners are recruited chiefly from friends and relatives of other owners.

See these four great new cars at the Automobile Show. Compare them point for point, unit for unit, with the values others offer. Then you will realize what Willys-Overland's Engineering Leadership means to you.

County Quintets and Harding High Ready for Tourney

Green Camp and Caledonia Will Play First Contests at Delaware Friday Noon

Will Meet Gambier and Monroe Township Respectively In Games at 11:30, Friday Morning; Prospect Plays Carroll at 12:15 Friday; Two County Teams May Meet

MARION County basketball teams entered in the Central District Tournament at Delaware, will first take the floor at 11:30, Friday morning, when Green Camp will play Gambier on Court No. 1 of Edwards' Gym, and Caledonia will meet Monroe Township on Court No. 2.

Prospect will play Carroll on Court No. 2 at 12:15, taking the floor immediately after it is vacated by Caledonia and Monroe Township.

Green Camp and Caledonia, favorites, play on the same court at the same hour in the first game Friday morning that presents Marion County visitors to the tourney from two possessing both games. They must each hold their seat at one end of the court and see Green Camp play or wrestle at the other end and witness the Caledonia game. The floor is divided into two parts for the first two rounds of Class B games. A spectator may see a number of both contests if he gets well located on the balcony of the gym in order to view either side of the canvas that is usually hung between the two courts.

Two Teams May Meet

Probably the most interesting fact concerning the tourney is that, should both Green Camp and Caledonia survive the first round, they will meet each other at 10:30 Saturday morning, in the second round.

Green Camp, Marion County champions, must defeat Gambier High School. Nothing is known about the strength of Gambier but it is certain that the quintet is rather ambitious or it would not be entered in the meet. We have complete confidence in the county champs, however, and look for a victory if they do not get too "cocky" or have an attack of stage fright.

And Caledonia should win also. Monroe Township does not sound so monstrous as Gambier but the name of the town may not seriously affect the value of the teams. Caledonia has a snappy outfit and will have a large number of backers rooting for them.

Second Game

The big battle will come Saturday, should the two quintets turn in victories. The team that wins the 10:30 game Saturday morning plays sometime after 6:30, Saturday night, when the third Class B round will be played off between eight teams. The survivors of the round Saturday night will be entitled to again appear on the program the following Saturday afternoon in the semi-finals.

Prospect is not at all a minus quality in this great tournament. They were only third in the county but that does not necessarily mean that they will not have a chance in the meet at Delaware. Prospect cagers will meet Carroll in the first game and will play the winner of the Orange-Arlington contest. Their second game also will be played at 10:30, Saturday morning.

The Class B games Saturday night in the third round will take place lengthwise on the floor at Edwards' Gym.

DELANEY DYING

"Condition Unchanged" Is Announcement of Physicians at Bedside

Minneapolis, Mar. 3—Jimmy Delaney, St. Paul boxer, was dying today and physicians abandoned all hope of saving his life.

"Delaney's condition is unchanged," was the brief announcement at the hospital today where yesterday it was declared the fighter had virtually no chance of recovering from blood poisoning caused by an infected elbow received in a Cincinnati fight two weeks ago.

ROLL TO TAKE SHOVEL PIVOT PLACE TONIGHT

Will Replace Harry Schwab at Center; Martin To Referee

Harry Roll will be seen tonight in the center position vacated by Harry Schwab on the Steam Shovel basketball team when the shovels and Isaly dairymen tie up in the star auditorium in the third game of the series being played by the two quintets.

Roll has been seen at forward on the Shovel team during the last month and has created a sensation in local basketball circles. He is no taller than Newt Minard, Isaly center, if as tall, but he is said to be one of the best jumpers ever to play on a local court. Schwab, who made 25 of the Shovels points last week, has joined the Cincinnati Red baseball club. It is possible that Mel Shaw may be on the bench to take over the pivot position if necessary.

Will Miss Schwab

While the Shovels will have an excellent man in the tap off position, they will miss the services of the giant Schwab who has played in every game this season with the exception of the first battle with Ohio Wesleyan in December.

The Shovels have won two games in the series, taking the first 33 to 27, and winning the second 54 to 30. The first was played on the Star auditorium court and the second took place at the Shovel. Should it be necessary to play the entire series, the final two games will be staged on the Shovel floor.

The Dairies must win the next three contests if they wish to claim the series. They cannot afford to lose the game tonight. If they do, the series is over and the Shovels are victors.

The Isaly Dairymen will be minus the services of Bruz Robbins, reserve guard, who now lives in Meadville, Pa. Lloyd Phillians, forward, who played much of the first series tilt, is also out of the game. He now lives in California. Wes Griffin of Bliss College, former Isaly man, who played last week, may again be in the lineup tonight.

Seats for the third game are going rapidly, despite the fact that the last contest resulted in a walk-away for the Shovels. All Shovel fans are going to the game to see the Shovels whip the Dairies again and all Dairy fans are planning on seeing their team wipe up the floor with the Shovels to get revenge for the overwhelming defeat of last week.

Martin of Otterbein will referee the game. He has officiated at a number of Harding High contests this season.

M'TIGUE TO BATTLE JACK SHARKEY TONIGHT

New York, Mar. 3—Whether Mike McTigue's comeback is real or synthetic will be determined at Madison Square Garden tonight when the former light heavyweight champion clashes with Jack Sharkey of Boston in a fifteenth round bout.

The winner will be matched with Jim Maloney early this summer, and the ultimate survivor will get a crack at Gene Tunney's title.

PATE READY

Ft. Myers, Fla., Mar. 3—Joe Pate, left-handed rescue hurler, the Athletics' only holdout, was to confer with Connie Mack today. Pate's chief complaint, it seems, is he wants to work nine innings, not just a few innings. The two squads led by Capt. Collins and Jimmy Dykes will clash this afternoon in the first of series of regular games. With Pate's arrival all the Athletics are now in camp except Ty Cobb and Dave Barbee. Cobb has until Mar. 5 to report but he is expected today.

ENGLISH TO SIGN

Chicago, Mar. 3—Elwood English, shortstop, purchased by the Cubs from the Toronto Club of the International League for $50,000 has forsaken the ranks of the holdouts and is ready to sign on the dotted line, President William Veeck of the Cubs announced today.

"English advised me that he is leaving for Chicago to sign a contract," said Veeck. "He will go from here to the training camp."

BABE RUTH SIGNS WELL ENOUGH BUT NOT TOO WISELY AS HE AGREES TO $70,000 TERMS

Gets Three-Year Contract at $210,000; Might Have Increased That Amount to Quarter of Million, Says Walsh, If He Had Been Patient and Outwaited Col. Ruppert

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Mar. 3—Far be it from me to throw a lot of garlic in a mess of cream of custard but the inference is inescapable today that George Herman Ruth, our prominent penman, signed well enough but not too wisely when he agreed to terms in just one half hour with all of yesterday's 24 at his disposal. I don't think there is any doubt that George or Herman or both could have done better than the $70,000 a season he was granted. At the same time, there is even less doubt that he could have done worse.

Judge Landis did. With all of his acumen, jurisprudence, oratory and general parlor magic, the best the judge has been able to get out of baseball is a $65,000 contract. I'll admit that the best in this case is not what Kipling found it to be east of Suez but still it isn't often that an employe outdraws the boss.

Cobb and Speaker had to go through the rough dry system to get baseball where they wanted it. Yet the former is understood to have signed with the Athletics for $50,000 with a $10,000 bonus and Speaker for $40,000 flat, which isn't exactly the way to speak of that kind of money. Hornsby was wafted out of St. Louis on the wings of a ballyhoo such as few men have been favored with. He will get $40000 this season as balm for his great mental and moral distress.

McGraw Gets $35,000

McGraw has spent a life time winning pennants but I understand that Giants value his services as manager at exactly $35,000 a year. This, of course is exclusive of the rake off that is his as vice president and one of the principal stockholders of the club. Is McGraw as a manager worth half as much as Ruth as a ball player? Just a small question, you know; no offense intended.

Yes, George or Herman or both will be able to eke out an existence somehow, for today he stands as the highest salaried man in baseball and they don't pay them with short change in that racket.

However, it is my understand that, with a little more jockeying, the Yankees would have raised their three year bid at least $40,000, giving the boy friend a quarter of a million for the full contract. Like many a stud player, he didn't stay long enough to win.

Might Have Been More

Imagine, for example, what Charley Hernog would have done with the same situation. That young man always got what was coming to him from baseball even if he had to hold out until the first week of the season. He simply out-waited the other and, if it had happened that Charles was a $100,000 ball player, $100,000 was the sum he would have got.

Ruth never gave himself the same chance and for only one reason, because Ruth is Ruth. He would toss a coin, race you around the block or decide a point in any manner that would get immediate action. The slow, wearing process of dickerings is not for him even with thousands at stake.

The very fact that he got a three-year contract is indictive of the Yankees' complete satisfaction over the money involved. Only for just this consideration could Ed. Barrow's aversion to long term contracts be so readily overcome.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEES WILL MEET TONIGHT

To Discuss Many Affairs, Including Coming Amateur Cage Tournament

A meeting of the athletic committee of the Y. M. C. A. and church athletic committee is scheduled for 6:45 tonight in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on the lower floor. F. O. Rudolph, physical director of the "Y," announced today.

Among the many affairs to be discussed is the coming county amateur basketball tourney at the Y. M. C. A. The tourney is planned to get under way Wednesday, Mar. 23, and will probably close Friday, April 1.

The Sunday School League will not close until late in March or the forepart of April.

ELECT CREASAP

Harry Creasap Is President of Steam Shovel Athletic Association

Harry Creasap has been elected president of the Marion Steam Shovel Athletic Association for the coming year, it was announced today. D. J. Shelton is vice president. Miss Mildred Robt is secretary, and "Doc" Altmaier is treasurer.

The association has had a busy winter season and is preparing for a busier spring session when tennis, baseball, and possibly golf get under way.

FINNEGAN IN MATCH

Chicago, Mar. 3—"Honeyboy" Finnegan of Boston, one of the best featherweights in the business, has been signed for one of the ten-pound feature bouts at the Coliseum Mar. 17, Promoter Jim Mullen announced today. His opponent will be Johnny Hill, the Filipino, who holds a decision over Ray Miller. Mullen plans to stage a card of four ten-round bouts. He will try to make them "all star affairs, he announced.

APPLY SULPHUR ON YOUR ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease to the skin at once, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It gets one calls to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist.—Adv.

TRAINING CAMP CHATTER

St. Petersburg, Fla., Mar. 3—Followed by the news that Babe Ruth has signed the Yankees went to work today with renewed vim. The Babe is expected to start clouting homers here on Monday.

Sarasota, Fla., Mar. 3—Cold weather has handicapped the training plans of the Giants. Sliding practice for the rookies was ordered by Manager McGraw.

CLEARWATER, FLA., MAR. 3—HARVEY HENDRICK, FORMER YANKEE OUTFIELDER, WHO IS BEING GROOMED TO FILL ZACH WHEAT'S SHOES, WAS THE CENTER OF INTEREST AT THE BROOKLYN CAMP TODAY IN HIS FIRST DAY AT CAMP. HENDRICK GOT THREE HITS.

Lakeland, Fla., Mar. 3—With word from Joe and Luke Sewell saying the brothers would report ready for training Monday, Mar. 7, the only Indian unaccounted for today is "Sherry" Smith, pitcher. He is reported holding out for a higher salary.

George Burns, rated the American League's most valuable player for the season 1926, has been appointed field captain of the tribe.

Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal., Mar. 3—The first casualties in the Cubs' family were causing Manager Joe McCarthy some concern today. Gabby Hartnett, the peppy backstop, and three rookies suffered minor injuries during yesterday's fielding practice. Earl Gilpin, Clyde Beck and Frank Wilkie, infield recruits, were slightly damaged while trying to scoop up grounders that took nasty bounces. Hartnett played all afternoon without a cap and today his face was so swollen from sunburn he could hardly see.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., MAR. 3—BECAUSE OF THE STRENUOUS TRAINING OF THE FIRST THREE DAYS OF THE WEEK THERE ARE MANY SORE MUSCLES IN CAMP THIS MORNING. MORIARTY'S FIRST SQUAD IS NOW COMPLETE WITH THE EXCEPTION OF GEORGE DAUSS, VETERAN PITCHER, WHO IS INDISPOSED.

Shreveport, La., Mar. 3—Manager Ray Schalk's proteges complained of stiffness and other minor impediments today when he called for the strenuous day on the diamond. The White Sox fold got its first real workout of the season yesterday and when the 5 o'clock whistle blew, announcing that work for the day was finished, Trainer Buckner's work only began. He put in a busy two hours rubbing away backaches and working the kinks out of sore arms. But today is another day, averred "Cracker" Schalk, and the boys started the pace all over again.

LATZO BOUT POSTPONED

Chicago, Mar. 3—The ten round bout between Pete Latzo, welterweight champion of the world, and Joe Simici of Butte, Mont., scheduled for Monday, Mar. 6, had been postponed until the Thursday night following. Postponement was made necessary by an infection of Latzo's lip.

Taking the Gamble Out of Inexpensive Tires

Price is an important factor in buying tires, but it is secondary to quality.

When you buy USCO Tires you not only get the advantage of an extremely low price, but you buy quality built-in by the United States Rubber Company and sold with the standard warranty.

USCO Tires cost no more than those foundlings that are unbacked by the firm that made them.

If you want quality as well as price, look on the sidewall of the tire for the name and trademark of the United States Rubber Company.

It is your protection in buying inexpensive tires.

Marion Cagers to Battle Columbus Central Late Friday in Initial Game

Harding Has Tough Assignment and Is in Strongest Division of Tourney; Must Meet Lancaster If It Gets as Far as Semi-Finals; First Game at 5:45

HARDING HIGH has probably the toughest assignment dished out to any Class A team in the Central District Tournament at Delaware in the first round, Friday. The Marionites will take on the strong Central High quintet of Columbus, at 5:45 o'clock, Friday afternoon.

Not only has Harding drawn one of the best teams in Central Ohio but it was also unlucky enough to get placed in the first division of the tourney with Lancaster, Circleville, East High of Columbus, and Mt. Vernon, four of the greatest quintets entered at Delaware. Lancaster is doped to win the tournament unless knocked off by Central, according to leading sport critics of this Ohio district.

Should Harding defeat Central, it must meet the winner of the East High-Mt. Vernon game at probably 2:45 Saturday afternoon. Should it come through both contests it will get a crack at the winner of the Lancaster-Circleville clash in the semi-finals the following Saturday afternoon. Finals in Boys Class A and Class B will be held Saturday night, Mar. 12.

Lancaster Gets Bye

Lancaster and Circleville in Harding's division drew byes and must play only one game Saturday to enter the semi-finals. They will not need to appear at Delaware Friday.

Columbus Central finished the high school season in Columbus at the head of the league with South High on its heels in a tie. Central lost two games to Columbus teams this season and won six. South performed the same feat. Central is equipped with Bob Tuttle, diminutive forward of three years' service, who was high scorer in Columbus last year and made a great flash at the Delaware tournament.

Harding has not yet been mentioned by any sport writer in this section of the state as even having a chance in the tournament. But it is the opinion of Marion fans that the local cagers are finally coming out of the kinks and may prove to be the "dark horse" of the tourney.

Harding Improving

The Marionites were green to start with this season and have had plenty of hard luck to help along the greenness. Now, with the tourney only a few hours away, it seems certain that the boys are finally in the best physical condition of the season and full of fight, ready to redeem themselves for the rather poor showing made in the North Central Ohio League.

The Marion lads began their renaissance cruise last week by nosing out the Delaware crew 19 to 18 on the small Delaware armory floor after the Delaware team had defeated the locals here a few weeks ago.

Joe Rinnert is again at center and has been there during the last two games, which resulted in victories. Joe was out most of the N. C. O. League season with an injured ankle and his absence has, in a way, been responsible for a couple of the locals' defeats in the belief of many.

On Long Court

All Class A games will be played length-wise on the huge Edwards gym court, which is approximately the dimensions of the Star auditorium, Harding's home floor.

With everything in their favor except the tough Central team, the Marionites hope to come through with flying colors and at least play in the semi-finals the following week.

RAILWAY SERVICE TEAM DEFEATS STAR BOWLERS

Wins Match of Two Games on Y. M. C. A. Alleys; Last of Series

The Railway Service bowling team last night defeated the Star crew by a margin of 28 points in a two game match, the third of a series of matches between the two teams. It was the deciding tilt.

The Service took the first games with a margin of 43 pins and the Star won the second by 15 points. Gibson was high man for the Star with 174 pins in the second game and Sharrock was leader of the Railway Service with 185 points.

will be featured by addresses by Prof. Edward Spease of Western Reserve, University, Cleveland: Dean Raabe and Professor Hamaker of Ohio Northern University, Ada: and M. N. Ford, secretary of the Ohio State Board of Pharmacy, Columbus.

On Program

Among others prominently identified with the drug business in Ohio who are expected to be present and take part in the discussions are Henry Pollack of Cleveland, former president of the Ohio State Pharmaceutical Association, T. D. Wetterstroem of Columbus, secretary of the state organization, C. L. Furney of Kenton, W. C. Wohlgamot of Marysville, A. A. Hofstetter of Tiffin and Herbert O. Faulk of Bucyrus.

One of the bills now pending before the legislature which the druggists are expected to indorse requires that all medicines be sold by licensed pharmacists, permitted dealers and physicians, that there shall be truthful advertising of medicines and the places where they are sold and that an annual joint license for non-pharmacist owner and pharmacist of a drug store must be taken out, thereby insuring better control over the compounding and sale of high powered medicines.

It is contended that if the bill becomes a law it will "drive the bootlegger out of the drug store."

The object of the druggists' organization is to improve service and protection for the public and that will be the basis of tonight's discussions, Mr. Macnab, secretary of the Marion County association, stated today.

Counties comprising the Central Ohio district, all of which will be represented at the meeting, are Marion, Hardin, Logan, Union, Seneca, Wyandot and Crawford.

DENY PAT M'DERMOTT HAS MADE CONFESSION

Warden Thomas Says Convicted Slayer of Canton Publisher Visited by Kin

Columbus, Mar. 3—Denial of any official knowledge of a report circulated early today that Pat McDermott, convicted slayer of Don R. Mellett, editor of the Canton Daily News, has confessed the slaying and implicated other persons, was made by officials of the Ohio State penitentiary here, where McDermott is serving a life sentence, early today.

Prison officials said that McDermott had conferred with one of his brothers, and his sister, several times during the last few days, but said they had no knowledge of any confession having been made by the prisoner.

Warden Thomas, of the penitentiary, declared that McDermott has seen only two outsiders since he entered the prison, several weeks ago.

"He has talked only with his sister, whose name I do not know, and with her brother, Bernard McDermott," said the warden. "If McDermott has made any confession, I have no knowledge of it, and it must have been made to his brother or sister."

RENAMED POSTMASTER

Schick Tests Given 4,300 Students in City Schools in Last Two Years, Report

Eighty-Five Per Cent of Children Treated Last Year Registered as Immune This Year, City Health Commissioner W. J. Weiser's Records Show

A report on diphtheria immunization work in the local grade schools, which started in November and was completed during the last week of February, was filed with the City Board of Health yesterday by Dr. W. J. Weiser, city Health Commissioner.

The report showed that 2,087 pupils of the public and parochial schools were Schick tested and immunized. During the preceding school year, when Schick testing was inaugurated here, 2,213 pupils received the tests and immunization treatment, making a total of 4,300 for the two years.

This year's tests, Dr. Weiser informed the board, showed that 85 per cent of the children who received the treatment the first year registered as immune when tested this year. This is regarded as a very satisfactory showing by local health authorities, who say that it proves the value and effectiveness of the Schick system.

Fewer This Year

The percentage of pupils receiving the treatment this school year was much higher than the preceding year, when many parents were skeptical and refused to have their children take the test. Tests and immunizing treatments are usually carried out on children whose parents signed consent blanks.

Although the total number of pupils tested and treated this year was less than those of the preceding year, the percentage was considerably higher due to the fact that Harding High School and the junior high schools were not included in this year's immunization work. A large number of pupils from these schools took the test the first year.

Dr. Weiser states that he has tentatively mapped out a program for the future. School testing and immunization treatments probably will be limited from now on to pupils of the first and third grades and to children of pre-school age. He intends, he says, to make certain almost 100 per cent immunization in the schools.

Children who received the treatments during the last two years should continue immune in the high school careers are completed, Dr. Weiser states.

Possible Test

It is possible, however, that another general test may be made after the lapse of several years to determine whether the immunization standard still registers up to a satisfactory degree of effectiveness.

The health commissioner also reported that he examined and made a permanent record, last month, of the physical condition of 65 first grade children, 41 at the Oliver school and 24 at Silvercut. He was assisted in this work by Mrs. Geer and Mrs. Maughans, local public health nurses.

Five cases of scarlet fever were reported during the month but practically all were of a mild type, the commissioner stated.

Charles M. Tobin, city sanitary inspector, reported placing four families under quarantine during February. He also fumigated six houses where occupants had been ill of contagious ailments and investigated numerous complaints regarding sanitary conditions in various parts of the city.

There is truly one way of increasing the average life of man to 100 years. That is, to begin with his great-grandparents.

Borah to Keep Kellogg in Sight Till Next Congress

Idaho Senator Believes Secretary of State Has Anti-Bolsheviki Complex

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3—If he doesn't tour Latin America, especially Nicaragua, to see what the United States is doing there, William E. Borah of Idaho, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, expects to hang around Washington a good deal after congress adjourns, to keep an eye on Secretary of State Kellogg.

SENATOR BORAH

Borah is admittedly suspicious of Secretary Kellogg's policy south of the Rio Grande.

He says there are two sides to every question, but that Kellogg never hears but one side of any question of Latin American origin, and that he suffers, besides, from an anti-Bolshevik complex which leads him into all kinds of extravagances.

• • •

BORAH isn't the only member of the senate foreign relations committee who threatens trouble for the administration.

It's a pretty turbulent committee. A majority of its members, to be sure are manageable enough, but the few who do get out of control are so violently rambunctious that they create a commotion out of all proportion to their number.

Borah, to begin with, is a bull in any administration's china shop.

Hi Johnson of California is another. He's full of fight and party ties don't bind him. When he gets the hunch he thinks of nothing bolting Republican-ism entirely and running independently for vice president.

• • •

THE Democrats have some exceptionally pugnacious representatives on the same committee.

Joe Robinson of Arkansas is one of them. Joe is "opposition" leader in the senate and always on the lookout for administration mistakes to take advantage of. His able lieutenant, Pat Harrison of Mississippi, is another member. Tom Walsh of Montana, no limb—is a third.

Then there's the indefatigable Jim Reed of Missouri, who, when he takes the war trail, makes the fiercest member of congress hunt his hole.

• • •

FINALLY, there's the Farmer Laborite, Henrik Shipstead, of Minnesota, to whom whatever is, is a "regular" administration, is perfectly awful.

• • •

DURING the long gap between the sixty-ninth and seventieth congresses not even Borah and Johnson, Robinson and Harrison, Walsh, Reed and Shipstead can actually block any foreign policy the state department may chance to adopt, but they can say a lot to the newspapers and accumulate a barrel of ammunition for next December.

If Kellogg gets that outfit after his scalp he'll have reason for the nervousness he's celebrated for.

Moreover, whereas the senate in the expiring congress has been only doubtfully anti-administration, the next one will be unquestionably so. Hence, unless the secretary of state, watches his step, the things he's due to have said about him will be a plenty, and they'll echo and re-echo.

• • •

FOR some reason or other the senate foreign committee members don't seem particularly interested in the Chinese situation, big as it is.

Either they don't understand it themselves, or they consider it's being handled all all right already, or it's too far away to have attracted their attention, but at any rate they've practically ignored it.

Latin America, however, they evidently regard as level full of possibilities, which seem likely to be under the microscope all summer.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Young Mother.

The ills of infants and children should be so well known to the youngest of mothers that a reminder or a repetition of the symptoms of illness seems unnecessary, yet there are some mothers who overlook a feverish condition, a little colic, or a disposition to be irritable. If not corrected they may lead to serious sickness. And to correct them, to bring Baby back to its happy self, is so easy by the use of Castoria—a medicine prepared just for infants and children. It will regulate the bowels (not force them), aid digestion and so bring quiet and rest.

Fletcher's Castoria has been doing this for over 30 years; regulating the stomach and bowels of infants and children. It has replaced the nauseating Castor Oil, so-called Soothing Syrups, poisonous Paregoric and other vicious concoctions in the homes of true and honest mothers—mothers who love their children.

Those mothers will give their babies foods and medicines especially prepared for infants and children.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

Daily Bedtime Story

BY HOWARD GARIS

Uncle Wiggily and His Friends

Baby Bunty had been visiting at Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow for two or three weeks, when at last it came time for the cute little rabbit girl to hop over to the home of Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, the puppy dogs, with whose mother Bunty was going to stay for a month.

Baby Bunty was a little orphan rabbit, you know, and, having no home of her own, used to visit around with each other boy and girl animals of Woodland.

Best of all Baby Bunty liked to stay at Uncle Wiggily's bungalow, and the old rabbit gentleman loved Bunty. But it was part of the game that she must visit others, and now the time had come to make a change.

"Oh, I didn't know it was so dark out!" exclaimed Bunty when she looked out of the bungalow window before starting out for the dog kennel house where Jackie and Peetie were expecting her.

"Yes, it is dark," squeaked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy. "But here comes Uncle Wiggily. He'll take you over to the Bow Wow's house, Baby Bunty."

"Oh, will you?" asked the little rabbit girl, trying to make her pink nose twinkle like that of Mr. Longears.

"Of course I will," answered the funny uncle. "Though there is nothing to be afraid of in the dark. There is nothing in the dark that wasn't there in daylight. But I'll hop across the fields with you, Bunny."

Soon the old rabbit gentleman and the little bunny girl were on their way hopping through the darkness of early evening over the fields toward the dog house.

It wasn't so very dark, for there was snow on the ground making a white covering, and for a time Uncle Wiggily could see the way quite well. At least Bunty thought Uncle Wiggily knew the way, but after a while, when, it seemed, they had been hopping a long while, Baby Bunty said:

"Oughtn't we to be at Jackie's and Peetie's kennel by now? It must be almost supper time and I'm hungry!"

"Why, yes, we ought to be there," said Uncle Wiggily sort of puzzled like, standing still in the midst of a clump of trees and looking around. "I wonder if anybody could have lost the dog house, Bunty?" asked the rabbit gentleman.

"Lost the dog house! What do you mean?" asked Bunty. "You can't lose a house. You might get lost yourself, trying to find a house, but that's all."

"Well, that's enough!" said Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh dear" sighed Bunty. "Do you mean we are lost, Unkie Wig?"

"Do you see the Bow Wow house anywhere?" asked the rabbit uncle.

"No!" answered Bunty, looking around as best she could in the gloomy darkness. "I don't! Oh, we're lost and I'm so hungry! What shall we do?"

"Now be a brave little rabbit girl," soothed Uncle Wiggily. "If we are lost there must be some way of getting found. And if you are hungry there must be some way of finding food. Remember the lessons I have taught you of helping yourself when there is none to help you. Perhaps you can find some snow berries to eat."

"Snow berries!" cried Bunty. "I never knew snow had any berries."

"I mean berries that have fallen off trees," said Mr. Longears. "When berries fall from trees the snow covers the berries and if you dig for them—"

"Oh, now I know what you mean!" exclaimed Bunty, and she was so interested in looking for snow berries that she didn't think about being lost in the dark night. By this time the moon was up, and looking about, Bunty saw a holly tree from which she and Uncle Wiggily had gathered branches, with green leaves and red berries, to make Christmas wreaths.

"Maybe there are snow berries under that holly tree," said Bunty. She began to dig the snow away, and Mr. Longears helped her, and surely enough, on the ground beneath the white flakes, were many red holly berries, only Bunty called them "snow berries". They were good to eat, and soon the little rabbit girl and the big rabbit man were no longer hungry.

Then, all of a sudden a barking voice was heard calling:

"Are you out here, Uncle Wggily and Baby Bunty?"

"Yes, we're here, and we're lost and we had to eat snow berries," Bunty answered.

"Well, you're not lost any more, for we've come to find you and lead you to our house!" barked Jackie as he ran up with Peetie. The doggie boys, knowng Bunty was coming, had set out to meet her. So she and Uncle Wigggily weren't lost any more and were soon at the kennel house. Later Mr. Bow Wow took Mr. Longears back to the bungalow so the rabbit uncle wouldn't get lost again.

And if the fountain pen will dribble some ink on the firefly so he won't burn his legs, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the funny flowers.

A clever powder puff and container consists of a tube—about three inches in length—of an unbreakable enameled composition. One end contains the powder while the other holds the puff which looks like a fluffy shaving brush.

DETERMINING TO PROCEED IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF A SANITARY SEWER, STORM WATER SEWER, AND CELLAR DRAIN ON BELLEFONTAINE AVENUE FROM BARKS AVENUE TO GLENDALE AVENUE, THEN ON GLENDALE AVENUE FROM BELLEFONTAINE AVENUE TO LOT NO. 12747; ON CHATFIELD ROAD FROM BELLEFONTAINE AVENUE TO LOT NO. 12762; AND ON MAYNARD AVENUE FROM CHATFIELD ROAD TO SHERIDAN ROAD.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Marion, State of Ohio, three-fourths of all the members elected thereto concurring:

Section 1. That it is hereby determined by the Council of the City of Marion, Ohio, to proceed with the construction of a sanitary sewer, storm water sewer and cellar drain on Bellefontaine Avenue from Barks Avenue to Glendale Avenue, then on Glendale Avenue from Bellefontaine Avenue to Lot No. 12747; on Chatfield Road from Bellefontaine Avenue to Lot No. 12762; and on Maynard Avenue from Chatfield Road to Sheridan Road. In accordance with the resolution number 2217, passed January 25, 1927, and in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles prepared by the City Engineer and now on file in the office of the director of Public Service, which plans, specifications, estimates and profiles were heretofore approved.

Section 2. That all claims for damages resulting therefrom shall be judicially inquired into after the completion of the proposed improvement.

Section 3. That the whole cost of said improvement less one-fiftieth thereof and the cost of intersections shall be assessed by the foot front upon the following described lots and lands to-wit: All lots and lands are hereby determined to be especially benefited by said improvement: that the cost of said improvement shall include the expenses of preliminary and other surveys and the printing and publishing of the necessary resolutions and ordinances required, the serving of notices together with the interest on bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of the deferred installments of assessments and all other necessary expenses.

Section 4. That the assessment so to be levied shall be paid in five annual installments with interest upon deferred payments at not to exceed six per cent per annum, provided that the owner of any property assessed may at his option pay such assessment in cash, at any time within thirty days after the passage of the assessing ordinance.

Section 5. That bonds of notes of the City of Marion, Ohio, shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred installments of assessments and in the amount of equal thereto.

Section 6. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement shall be paid by the issuance of bonds in the manner provided by law.

Section 7. That said improvement shall be of first class sewer pipe with the necessary manholes, catch basins and laterals to curb line and the following materials may be bid upon for said improvement, to-wit—First Class Sewer Pipe.

Section 8. That the director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to make and execute a contrast for said improvement with the lowest and best bidder after advertising according to law.

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

NEW YORK MARKET DULL AND INACTIVE TODAY

Industrial and Railroad Bonds Move in Narrow Price Ranges

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

Railroad stocks, steady; industrials, irregular; domestic bonds, dull, foreign bonds, firm; call money, four per cent; grain, steady; copper, steady; oil, steady; cotton, irregular; rubber, steady; sugar, steady; pig iron, steady; foreign exchange, irregular.

New York, Mar. 3—Both the industrial and the railroad stocks moved in narrow price ranges in a dull and comparatively inactive market today. Most of the active stocks resisted the efforts of bearish professionals to depress prices much below Wednesday's final levels, and as a rule profit taking was well absorbed.

Failure of the bears to "shake out" the marginal holdings of the small traders in the stocks, which have advanced uninterruptedly for nearly three weeks, was encouraging to the bulls, and indicated a considerable withdrawal of stocks from the market's floating supply to the strong boxes of investors. Such stocks do not come out of their hiding places unless there is a violent slump in prices, or a sharp advance, sufficient to give the holders a good profit.

Money and industrial conditions were practically unchanged. Banks called a good volume of funds from the call loan market, but the rate ruled at four per cent and speculative funds were in good supply. Operations of the steel corporation's mills were up one per cent for the week. Commodity markets were slightly reactionary and bond prices slumped off moderately.

The motor stocks and the specialties moved forward confidently, with occasional dips as selling orders crowded the market. Hudson and General Motors, with Chrysler and Willys Overland, advanced more than a point on the average in a good volume of transactions. The motor accessory stocks were irregular, with Stromberg Carburetor down an additional five points and Stewart Warner off a point or more.

Stock transactions in the first four hours were about a quarter of a million shares less than in the same period yesterday, and indications were that the total volume would fall below 2,000,000 shares, for the first time in nearly three weeks. In the absence of special developments the commission houses cautioned against the indiscriminate buying of stocks.

Oil stocks were fairly steady, with Skelly, Phillips and Pure Oil in good demand. Congoleum led a good rally in the low-priced specialties. Equipment stocks were firm and utility stocks steady.

Today in Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meats, Grain, Livestock

Grocers and other storekeepers who handle various kinds of plants and seeds are arranging their stock in preparation for an anticipated rush in the near future. Within a few weeks, demand for supplies of this nature will swamp Marion merchants. From all indications, the demand will be even greater than that of last season.

The supply of head lettuce and leaf lettuce was plentiful on local market counters today, each variety selling at the usual price, 25 cents a pound and 10 cents a head respectively.

The egg market again remained unchanged today. Wholesale prices for strictly fresh eggs were 18 and 19 cents with a few local stores paying 20 cents. They were selling for 26, 28, and 30 cents in various Marion stores.

A brisk sale on turnips has been reported in local stores during the last few days. Turnips appeared on the market in abundance the latter part of last week.

Fruits were retailing at regular prices today. Those in season were plentiful.

Butter was firm and lard sold at 15 cents. Meats remained unchanged in price.
